Delegates Uncommitted

The Democratic County convention will open Saturday with 146 of the 243 delegates umcommitted to any presidential candidate.

Forty five delegates are committed to George McGovern, 13 to Hubert Humphrey, and two for George Wallace.

The Democratic convention will be held at 7:30 p.m. at Rex Reeves Elementary School in Canyon. The Republican County convention will be held at 8 p.m. at Canyon Junior High.

Thirty seven delegates did not declare a preference at the Democratic precinct conventions.

The Randall County Democratic Executive Committee met Tuesday night and joined precincts in order that the total number of votes cast for the Democratic governor in 1970 would total 300, the number required for a delegate to the state convention.

Precincts 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 were joined, precincts 8 and 12 were joined, precincts 9 and 17 were joined, and 10 and 11 were joined.

A runoff for precinct chairman will be held in Democratic Precincts 6 and 20. Peter Peterson and Benny Turner will be on the June 3 ballot for chairman of Precinct 6 and Bruce Clelland and David Stultz will be opposed for chairman in Precinct 20.

Voting boxes were also designated forthe June 3 run-off election.

Precincts 1 through 7 will vote at Rex Reeves Elementary School, 15 through 18 at Coronado Elementary School, 9 through 14 at Alice Landergin Elementary School, and 8, 19, 20, and 21 at Ridgecrest Elementary School.

On the run-off ballot for county commissioner, Paul Lindsey will appear first on the ballot and Charles Donnell will appear second.

All Democratic precincts in Randall County with the exception of two, elected a majority of uncommitted delegates. Precinct 6 and Precinct 12 were controlled by McGovern delegates.

Precinct 6 elected 13 delegates pledged to McGovern and 12 uncommitted delegates. Precinct 12 elected 8 delegates for McGovern and four uncommitted delegates.

Precinct 5 elected five uncommitted delegates, five committed to McGovern and four committed to Humphery and Precinct 18 elected 6 delegates for McGovern and six uncommitted.

Two Republican precincts passed resolutions censoring the administration at West Texas State University for presenting gifts to Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes when he came through Canyon on his campaign train.

Precinct 6 held at Rex Reeves Elementary School and Precinct 7 held at the Canyon Community Center passed the following resolution:

Whereas, West Texas State University is an institution supported by the taxes of all Texans and WTSU's president and

New Ballots Proposed

Randall County Clerk LeRoy Hutton will ask the Secretary of State for permission to use punch-card mail absentee ballots in the general election in November.

Hutton made the proposal Monday to the commissioners court and the commissioners indicated after approval is received from the secretary of state the court will consider it.

Hutton said Randall County would be the first county in the state to go to the system if it is approved.

The cost of personnel and time involved in counting the paper mail-in ballots and the computer time were compared for the court.

Hutton said 10 to 12 people spent 8 hours counting 489 paper mail-in ballots at a cost of about $128.

On election night, 10,357 ballots were counted by the computer at West Texas State University in one and one-half hours at a cost of $192. The cost of the computer also included two tests of the computer, Hutton added.

Hutton said the county could expect 3,000 absentee ballots to be cast in the general election and the number could go as high as 5,000 if voter registration hits 30,000.

Using punch-card mail ballots would save money in the long run, Hutton declared.

Hutton reported to the court, the computer program written by West Texas State University Computer Center was the best he had used. The program is written for four parties and can be used over and over again, Hutton explained.

The court approved a request by Mrs. Audrey Bruse to attend a Tax Assessor-Collectors conference May 14-17 in San Antonio.

The court also discussed the expenses paid to county employees when making such trips. In the past the county has paid 10 cents

School Board Tour Reveals Problems

Maintenence and custodial care is considered one of the school district's most pressing problems, Dr. Dudley Moore, school board president said this week.

Dr. Moore's comments came after the annual inspection tour of school plants by the board of trustees.

"We are going to need an electrical engineer for one thing," Dr. Moore went on.

Dr. Moore said board members are most concerned about maintenance at the high school in the dressing rooms and gymnasium area.

"It's terrible," the board president went on. "It probably is because of the tremendous traffic in those areas.

"We will have to spend more money and get more personnel to do the job."

Pointing to the need for a full time electrician, Dr. Moore said there are 500 electric motors and compressors in the high school and 400 in the junior high school alone.

"It's going to take a well qualified man to do the job and I understand it will cost from $12,000 to $15,000 a year."

The board president said it is going to be necessary to clean up the school farm area and obtain 10 to 15 acres elsewhere, preferably with no major highways between it and the high school.

Dr. Moore said board members found that considerable roofing must be done as roofs have been cracked by dry weather.

Plans call for a new front on the industrial arts building in downtown Canyon.

"We found from an educational standpoint things were real good," declared Dr. Moore. "The attitude of both teachers and students is good."

Vaccinations

Dogs will be vaccinated at a reduced rate from 9 a.m. to noon Friday and Saturday only at the Markham Veterinarian Clinic west of Canyon, according to Dr. Roy Markham.

Cost for vaccinating the dogs will be $3. The regular cost for vaccination is $4, Dr. Markham said.

Farm Meet

Members of the boards of the Farm Bureau and the Farmers Union will hold a special called meeting at 8 p.m. today at the Farm Bureau Building in Canyon.

Scabies eradication program will be the topic of the meeting.

Decision Reversed

City Given "A" Rating

The city of Canyon was given an A rating for utility bonds last week by the Moody Investment Service of New York City.

City Manager George Loudder said this will mean a $73,000 savings for the city over a 10 year period on an issue of 1957 water works bonds which have been refunded.

The bonds had been drawing 4¾ percent but have been re-funded at 4½ percent.

City utility bonds previously had held a B rating.

"There is no way of projecting the benefit to the city but the new rating undoubtedly will be of great benefit if we ever need to float another utility bond issue," Loudder said.

The new rating was issued as an aftermath of a visit to New York by several Canyon city officials. At first Canyon was given a BAA1 rating which is just lower than an A rating.

Bob Davis, Columbian securities representative and Canyon financial adviser, contacted the rating firm and asked why an A rating was not granted.

The firm expressed concern about depletion of underground water in the Panhandle.

City Engineer Bill McMorries replied with data on the city water field as well as reserves in the Panhandle area.

The firm reversed itself and granted the A rating.

Loudder said there will be no immediate effect on general obligation bonds but he feels that the A rating on utility bonds will be of some help when a new rating on general obligation bonds is considered.

Tornadoes Reported Just North Of Canyon

Threatening thunderstorms moved into Canyon from the west about 7 p.m. Tuesday night and dropped .40 inch of rain in Canyon and up to two inches in the area.

Two funnels were reported by the public near Buffalo Bowl but were not confirmed, according to the Randall County Sheriff's office.

Crosby Hammonds of the sheriff's office said sheriff's deputies watched the clouds but did not sight a funnel and the alarm was not put out in Canyon.

Two inches of rain was reported north of Canyon and two inches south of the city. Pea-sized hail fell at Buffalo Lake but no damage was reported. Happy received an inch and a half.

No damage due to win was reported, Hammonds said.

A funnel near Lake Tanglewood was reported by the public but the sheriff's office said they received no confirmation of this funnel.

Around the county Graham Ranch 20 miles south of Canyon reported 1.9 inches; Tom Wilhelm, Happy, 1.4 inches; Edgar Robinson, 10 miles west of Happy, 1.7 inches; Raymond Batenhorst, near Buffalo Lake, .7 of an inch; Umbarger, .3 of an inch; Glen Dowlen, 3 miles east of Ralph Switch, 3.30 inches; and Charlie Gerald, north of Canyon, about a half inch.

Wanted: 100 Area Water, Inc. Members

The Randall County Unit of Water, Inc., needs 100 members by the Monday meeting of the organization in order to have a member on the board of Water, Inc.

Bob Lindsey said Tuesday the membership now stands at 21 members and he had sent membership forms to 120 persons in the county.

Lindsey said he expected several of the memberships to be confirmed by Monday. The meeting of the organization will be held at 8 p.m. at the Farm Bureau building.

Tom Williams of Water, Inc., will be present at the meeting to present a film on water importation, Lindsey said.

Permanent officers of the Randall County Unit will be elected at the meeting. Officers will be nominated from the floor.

Water, Inc., is now working on a plan to import water from the Mississippi River. Lindsey said it is predicted the Panhandle only has enough water to last for the next 20 years and it will take 20 years to complete the plan after it is approved.

Anyone interested in joining Water, Inc., should contact Lindsey. Dues for the organization are $25 a year.

COVERING FUMBLES

60 Students Tested

Some 60 Rex Reeves Elementary School children are a part of a control group being tested in an effort by the Texas Air Control board to determine if there is a build-up of heavy metals coming from the American Smelting & Refining plant in Amarillo.

Supervising the tests was Dr. Ernest King, biologist on the staff of the air control board. He was being assisted by Dr. Ronald Coleman, with Environmental Consultants of Oklahoma City.

Dr. King said 30 boys and 30 girls in the 10 to 11 year age group were tested here. Dr. Coleman is aiding Dr. King in the new micro-chemical analysis technique through which tests are run on a small amount of blood taken by pricking a child's finger.

Dr. King reported that the tests are being made for cadium and lead in the blood.

Tests were run earlier this week on 60 children each from Willow Vista and Rolling Hills Schools, both down wind from the smelter in Amarillo.

Tests are slated for a like number of children in Forrest Hill and Whittier Schools.

The tests were run on children here so they could be compared to tests run on children in the vicinity of the smelting plant.

Bryce Slack, assistant principal at Rex Reeves, said the children were chosen at random and parental permission was obtained for testing.

Tanglewood To Elect Three

The filing deadline for the offices of mayor and two city aldermen at Lake Tanglewood is Saturday, according to Jim Fletcher.

The election for the three offices will be May 20 at the Tanglewood Club House. Candidates must file with Bob Gray, city secretary.

Two candidates have filed for mayor, Ernest Oakley and Nelson Cash. Four have filed for the two alderman positions, Eldon McNabb, J. D. Trice, Paula Gray, and Jim Thomas.

All of the candidates will run at-large, Fletcher said.

CHS Band Rated Tops

The Canyon High School Eagle Band was awarded a first division rating by each of three judges at the Fourth Annual Six Flags Over Georgia Band Festival Friday.

The judges were Dr. William D. Revelli, retired from the faculty of the University of Michigan, Al Wright, band director at Purdue University, and William Swor of Louisiana State University.

The band flew to Atlanta last Thursday to compete with 16 other bands in its classification, mostly from the eastern states.

After their performance, they spent the rest of Friday in the Six Flags Park.

Saturday was devoted to sightseeing in the Atlanta area which included the Cyclorama, a mural which portrays the battle for Atlanta during the Civil War, Stone Mountain Park, and Underground Atlanta, old buildings covered over by the construction of freeways and viaducts. The underground city has restaurants, souvenir shops, and tourist attractions, all with a Gay Nineties atmosphere.

During a dinner party that evening at the Sheraton Olympic, band members visited with Gary Laramore, assistant to band director J. W. King, who is doing a three-month tour of duty at Fort Benning, about 150 miles from Atlanta.

The musicians travelled to New Orleans by train Sunday, and heard Dixieland jazz in the French Quarter's Preservation Hall. On Monday, they flew home.

Chaperones who accompanied the band were Mr. and Mrs. King, John Sommer, Carroll Killingsworth, Mrs. Betty Brown, and Mrs. Jane Westberry.

A. R. Potts Named WT Security Head

An administrative panel looking into matters involving the West Texas State University Security Department is scheduled to report to Dr. James P. Cornette some time this month.

A. R. "Hank" Potts has been named temporarily to supervise the security department pending its reorganization and selection of a permanent security chief.

Potts has been with the department for the past 6 years and as second in command holds the rank of captain.

The three-man panel has spent more than a month conducting hearings in connection with the investigation.

Dr. Ronald Huffstutler, panel chairman, has declined all comment.

The panel consisting of Gary

FROM THE CANYON RIM

Richard Nixon saw his finest hour Monday night when he told the nation that he was willing to take whatever risks necessary to secure the safety of 60,000 American troops in Vietnam and the return of prisioners being held by the communists.

Nixon is doing what should have been done seven years ago——what Congressman Bob Price has been advocating the past five years——he is mining Haiphong harbor in North Vietnam and stopping the flow of supplies to the aggressor.

He made it clear that he has no choice unless we want another bloody Dunkirk in trying to get Americans out of Vietnam.

The rear guard of such a withdrawal would be cut down like ripe wheat if the northern invaders are allowed to roll unimpeded into South Vietnam.

Perhaps George McGovern could countenance such a possibility. I don't think Richard Nixon can and neither can I.

I know a young man standing in the shadow of the draft who expressed my feelings pretty well just after Nixon's talk.

"I'm glad the United States had begun acting like the United States again," he declared.

I was surprised at the poor showing Ben Barnes made in the election Saturday but I doubt that I was as surprised as Ben.

Come to think of it, Ben's defeat was not all that surprising. In 12 years in politics, this was the first time Barnes came up against any real competition.

Barnes pulled some real boners in his campaign. The worst probably was when his forces spread a smear story on Dolph Briscoe that backfired.

Preston Smith was not surprised at what happened to him Saturday. There had been gloom at Smith headquarters for a long, long time.

I felt it a year ago in talking to the governor's staff.

I honestly was astonished when Governor Smith announced for a third term.

In March Barnes came through Canyon on a campaign train.

A goodly crowd gathered at the depot. In fact, there must have been a lot of people there for curiosity rather than loyalty because the crowd outnumbered the votes Ben got in Canyon last Saturday.

Dr. James P. Cornette presented the lieutenant governor a buffalo head.

Briscoe came here several times. Although he wasn't accorded a greeting by the Chamber of Commerce Red Carpet Committee he was provided a captive audience of students on the WT campus.

He was allowed to make a speech in the dining hall at meal time.

Senator John Tower spoke on campus last fall.

Anyway, a Republican precinct convention Saturday voted to censure Dr. Cornette for making the presentation.

I think it's time the whole story is told.

True the presentation was made and the bearded beast of the rolling plains was accepted by the lieutenant governor.

However, a car belonging to a well-known Randall County Democrat was waiting at the depot at Tulia and whisked the buffalo head back to its permanent resting place at West Texas State.

The university really never meant to part with it.

And Ben Barnes really didn't want it.

"What would I do with a buffalo head?" he was quoted as having said in agreement to its return.

There was little in the election returns to cause Amarillo State Representative Ben Bynum and Democratic Committeeman Joe Batson to rejoice.

As a matter of fact Bynum has been making some poor choices all year.

He came down to Canyon, outside his own district, and created sympathy for Republican Mrs. Audrey Bruse, county tax assessor-collector, by criticizing the way she was running her office.

Home folks criticize but they don't allow it from outsiders. Even staunch Democrats rallied around Mrs. Bruse when she was attacked by Bynum.

Bynum brought more wrath down on his head when he advocated combining Randall and Potter Counties.

He rode the campaign train of loser Ben Barnes dressed immaculately in engineer's garb.

He voted against Speaker Rayford Price, not once but four times.

I understand that Governor Preston Smith wasn't exactly over joyed when Joe Batson, whom Smith appointed, used his helicopter in the Barnes campaign.

Such are the fortunes of war and politics.

Someone in antiquity so aptly said: "You only get one shot at the king."

Now let's take a look at my predictions for the first primary.

I predicted right on the money that Charlie Donnell and Paul Lindsey would be in a run off for county commissioner. I didn't think that Raymond Batenhorst would come so close or that Bob Henry would run such a good race.

Henry was the youngest of the four by several years. He proved himself a fine campaigner and my guess is that we'll be hearing from him again. Next time he will be hard to beat.

I was right in picking Bryan Poff to beat Hudson Moyer in the Democratic Primary and Rhett Plank to take Bob Slough in Republican balloting.

I correctly picked Briscoe for the run off but was flabbergasted when Sissy Farenthold instead of Barnes wound up as his second primary opponent.

I was right in predicting that Ralph Yarborough would cuff (perish the thought) Barefoot Sanders although Barefoot got into a run off with the former senator. Barefoot had better not go into the race barefoot——he'll need track shoes——if he's going to beat Ralph in June.

All in all, I feel I came pretty close for an amateur.

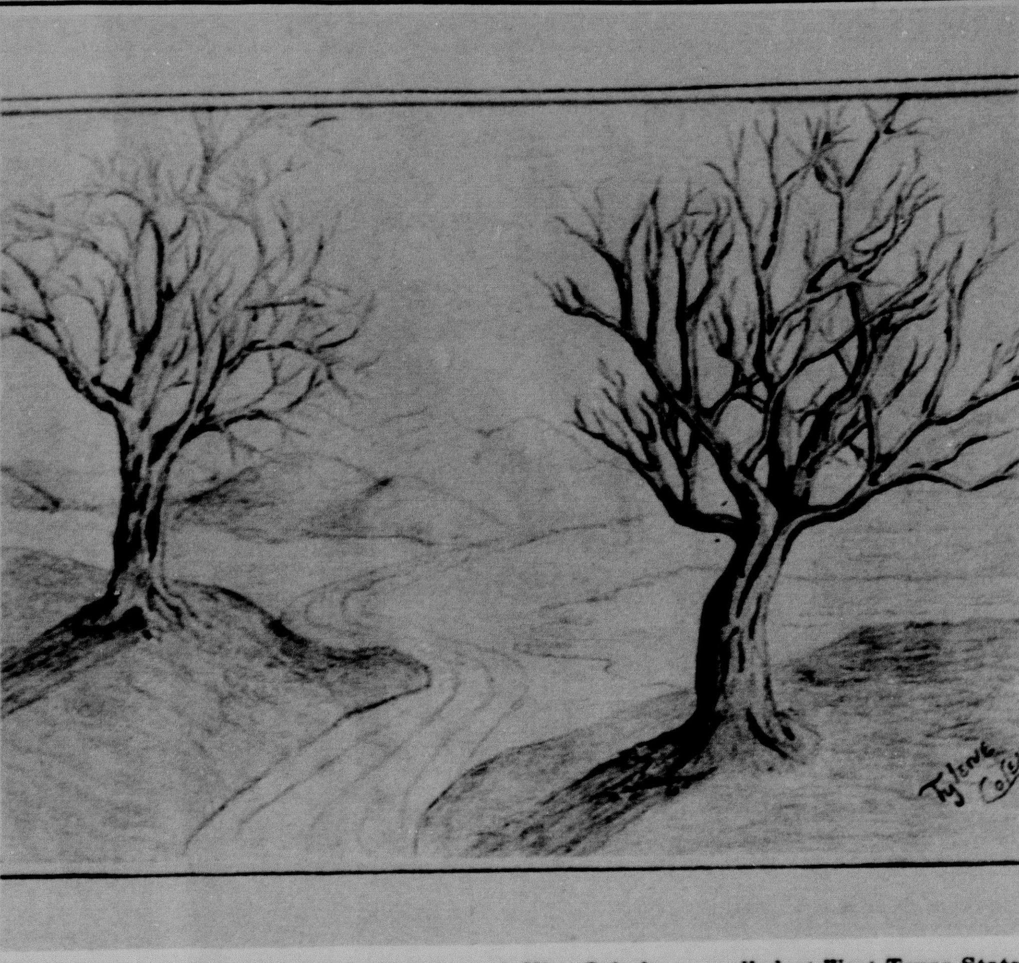
Hoover Signs Intent Letter With Baylor

Canyon High School speed merchant John Hoover inked a letter of intent with Baylor and will receive a track scholarship.

"We feel John is a definate sleeper and is a fine prospect," said Bear track coach Clyde Hart. "He was hurt this season and a lot of people overlooked him."

Hart said he has followed Hoover for the past two years. "He is a good athlete and a good student," Hart declared.

Hoover represented the Eagles at the state track meet his junior year in the 440 and the regional meet this year in the 100 yard dash.



This charcoal and pencil landscape was one of the first creative efforts of Tylene Cole, a quadriplegic confined to a wheelchair. Since an auto accident paralyzed her two years ago, Miss Cole has enrolled at West Texas State University, where she is studying art and hopes to pursue a career in art therapy.

Quadriplegic Improves Strength Through Work As Art Student

Few persons can better explain the value of art in life than West Texas State University sophomore Tylene Cole, a quadriplegic student who has been confined to bed and wheelchair for three years.

The pretty young art student, originally from Odessa but now residing at the Golden Age Rest Home in Amarillo, enrolled at WTSU last fall with no previous art training.

Deprived of the use of all hand, leg and foot muscles and having only limited use of arm muscles as a result of an automobile accident, Miss Cole previously spent 13 months as a bedridden patient at a rest home in Andrews.

Last year she came to the Bivins Rehabilitation Center in Amarillo, where she conquered what she considers the No. 1 enemy of a quadriplegic—the bed.

Always possessed with a "love to create with the hands," Tylene, who before her accident planned a career in designing and modeling, felt that all hopes were dashed after her accident.

One inspirational event in her life, she says, was meeting an artist who was also quadriplegic, even more severely stricken than Tylene. After showing her some of his watercolors and charcoal drawings, Tylene began to consider the possibility that she, too, might be able to create things.

Through the encouragement of counselor for the Texas Educational Rehabilitation Center, Orrell Vice and Dr. Emilio Caballero, head of the WTSU art department, Miss Cole was able to surmount her fears of returning to school, she says.

Upon enrolling at WTSU, many persons and several organizations joined to help Tylene meet some of the daily obstacles in her life.

Among them is Gamma Sigma Sigma, a service club, whose members take care of her physical needs. The organization also made her an honorary member this year.

Allene Stovall, assistant professor of health and education, and several students in the physical education department are engaged in driving the van that brings Tylene to school every morning and in taking her to classes.

Other students hoist Tylene's wheelchair up stairs and take her class notes. Exams are given to her orally.

Tylene has shoulder muscles. A brace supports one paralyzed hand, but someone must put brushes and other utensils in the small slots in the brace.

Since all of her physical momentum in drawing, weaving and other activity comes from her shoulder muscles, even the smallest tasks require a great deal of time and much physical strength.

"But in the past year I have come up with a hundred imaginative ways to work using what I have, and the work I've been doing has actually improved my physical strength through exercise," she says.

In the course of the year, Tylene has created a number of artistic items—bamboo placemats, woven wall-hangings, a baby blanket and a small charcoal and pencil landscape which was recently displayed at the new Amarillo Art Center.

Although she plans to explore other fields of artistic creation, her over-all aim is to pursue a career in art therapy.

This dream, she says, seems to be coming to fruition. This summer she will be one of the art students participating in the WTSU art department's therapy program at the Northwest Texas Psychiatric Pavilion in Amarillo.

MISS TYLENE COLE

"I think I can do a lot to help these people," she says. "In a way all of us who are confined to wheelchairs are trailblazers. If we can achieve and create something in our lives, we will perhaps open roads for others to follow.

"A person in a wheelchair can become one of two things. He can become a self-pitying nothing or he can become an even better person than he was before his accident.

"I don't think I'll ever become resigned to my handicap—there will always be battles to fight. But in having to climb many mountains and meeting with so many obstacles along the way, I somehow think one comes out the better for it—as if God, in taking something away gives something even better in return."

Miss Cole is the daughter of Mrs. Velma Bradley of (206 Con-et Dr.) Odessa and Lloyd Bradley of San Angelo. She was graduated from Odessa High School and attended Odessa College.

Weston, Boeka Win Tourney At Hunsley

Dick Weston and Jerry Boeka, who were tied for second after the first round, one stroke out of first with a 68, fired a sizzling 64 Sunday to capture the First Annual Hunsley Hills Partnership. Ken Bailey and Hack Cogburn toured the course with a 67 Saturday to take the first round lead, but Weston and Boeka and the Tommy Rose-Steve Webb team were just a stroke back at 68.

Cogburn and Bailey fired an identical 67 in the second and final round Sunday, for a runner up finish, while Weston and Boeka trimmed four strokes off their score for a 134 win.

Rose and Webb soared four strokes for a third place 140 finish.

Dee and Levens scored a 74 to nab the first flight lead, while Joe Ziegler and Bill Bell were tied for third three strokes back. Dees and Levens padded their first day total by three on Sunday, but Ziegler and Bell cut off a spectacular nine strokes on the final 18 for a 77,68—145 first place finish in the first flight.

The team of David Allen and Brad Ramsower fired 78 the first day in the first flight competition and were also seemingly out of the competition when they too trimmed nine strokes off their score to finish second, with a 147.

Jerry Jacobs and Ron Mills grabbed a one stroke lead with a 73 in the first round of the third flight. On Sunday the pair matched that score again winning by a three stroke margin over Gayle Pyeatt and J. E. Fergason.

Larry Peters and Jay Phillips won the third flight with an 82,74 156. They were in a two way tie for third at the end of the first day with an 82, but cut eight strokes off on the final 18 to edge B. B. Kendrick and Roy Winters by one stroke.

Spring Graduation Activities Fill Time, Make Memories

By SUSAN DOLLE

END OF THE year school activities are coming pell mell. Besides semester tests, there are parties and banquets, dinners and dances, each of which will hold lifetime memories for the participants.

THE JACK BRANDT family is involved in two graduations this spring. Sadie Brandt received a degree from West Texas State University Saturday after combining homemaking and study for five and one-half years. the Brandt's 17-year-old son Dwight will graduate from Canyon High school on May 26.

MRS. BRANDT RECEIVED her degree in elementary education with an endorsement for teaching the mentally retarded and a minor in biology. She will attend classes this summer for certification in language learning disabilities.

A HIGH HONOR student, she is listed in Alpha Chi, Kappa Delta Pi, and Beta Beta Beta, national honor socities. She also participated in the Student Education association.

A DIFFERENCE IN graduating as a wife and mother is that it seems as though the whole family received the diploma, she reports. Her husband Jack, who she says has given her much support, farms in the Umbarger community. Philip, the oldest son, is also a WTSU student. Other sons are Steve, fifteen-year-old student at Canyon Junior High, and Mark, a nine-year-old at Rex Reeves.

RESPONSIBILITIES AS A senior class mother have filled many days this spring for Mrs. L. L. Raef whose daughter Mary has been senior class president. The senior parents sponsored a dinner dance for the graduates at Tascosa Country Club in Amarillo last Friday evening. Special gift for each graduate was a decoupaged graduation invitation which the parents had prepared. Food and arrangements for the all-night senior party will also be Mr. and Mrs. Raef's charge, with the help of other parents.

THERE ARE A multitude of things a mother must do, only some of which are school activities. On Mother's Day, she is thankful for the work she was given to do. Minor frustrations, like the unwashed mixing bowl in the sink after the cupcakes are already gone, the sack lunch left noticed on the kitchen cabinet five minutes after the bus is gone are forgotten when the children are more excited about Mother's Day than you are and hand over their wrapped hand-made gift Sunday morning. It all seems worthwhile, after all.

THE CHARLES BECKMANS have recently been visiting in Dalhart where their daughter and son-in-law welcomed a son, David April 28. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Przilas have three other children, Colette, 8; Sandra, 6; and Douglas, 4. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Przilas of Wall.

THE A. C. EVERS family wishes to thank the Knights of Columbus for donations of blood, the Altar Society for visits and cards, and neighbors and friends for their prayers, kindness and visits when Mr. Evers was in the hospital and ill at home. They also wish to thank Monsignor Matthew F. Schafle for his consideration during the illness.

AT THE PRESENT time, the main goal of Siesta Plaza is to organize a Volunteer Fire Department. It is a time-consuming process, collecting cash donations and equipment, but the firemen are working hard. The men of the Siesta Plaza Volunteer Fire Department elected officers and they are as follows: President - Tom Capps, 245 La Fiesta Lane; Vice - President - John Shaw, 244 La Fiesta Lane; Secretary - Jim Belyew, 227 La Fiesta Lane, and Treasurer - Jimmy Carter, 100 Loma Linda. Wes Turk, 267 La Fiesta Lane is Fire Chief and Lonnie Wilson, 107 Siesta, is Assistant Fire Chief.

THE WOMEN'S AUXILIARY of the Siesta Plaza Volunteer Fire Department also elected officers: President - Mrs. John Shaw, 244 La Fiesta Lane; Vice - President - Mrs. P. L. Pitt, 120Siesta; Secretary - Mrs. Wes Turk, 267 La Fiesta, and Treasurer - Mrs. Dwane Glassco, 121 Siesta.

MARCH12 THROUGH March 19 was designated Fire Prevention Week and the Women's Auxiliary held a spaghetti supper. Cash prizes were awarded to the children who entered fire prevention posters in the contest. First Place went to LaViye Rowland, 9, and Second Place went to Lawrance Rowland, 8. There was a three-way tie for Third Place and those winners were Dalene Rowland, 12, Rhonda Shaw, 5, and Michael Shaw, 7. LaViye, Lawrance, and Dalene are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Rowland, 119 Siesta. Rhonda and Michael are the children of Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw, 244 La Fiesta.

I'D LIKE TO request all members of Siesta Plaza who have any interesting information for The Canyon News to call me at 353-2024 and I'd be ever so glad to write it in the column.

Opportunity Plan Gives Help To Art Therapy Student At WT

Babysitting and cleaning other people's houses were most of what Judith McClaran of Idalau knew of life before coming to West Texas State University four years ago.

A 1966 graduate of Idalou High School, Miss McClaran says when other schoolmates talked of going to college she never considered the possibility of pursuing a higher education.

"Even when I was a senior in high school," she says, "I was cleaning house and babysitting for 50 cents an hour. My parents couldn't afford to send me to college, so I never considered it seriously."

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman McClaran of Idalou.

Then one of her employers told her about WTSU and through two students here she learned about the school's Opportunity Plan, Inc., headed by Milton (Buff) Morris.

Finding out that through an OPI Loan supplemented by a National Defense Student Loan she could go to school, she was soon enroute to Canyon.

In the fall of 1968, the day before registration was to begin, she arrived on campus without money or a place to live. Other than clothes and personal effects, she had only a drinking glass and a cooking pot.

"I didn't think to bring anything else, since I thought I would be living in a dorm," she says. "But when I stated my preference for living off-campus since I was 21, the student financial aids office found me a place in a rooming house."

Living with another girl, the twosome had to make do with only the glass and pot for cooking until Miss McClaran's mother came to the rescue with other cooking utensils, she says.

But Miss McClaran still had another problem—she didn't know what to major in, although she had an inkling that she would like to find a field related to art.

After extensive vocational aptitude and preference tests administered by the university's Testing and Counseling Center, the results showed physical therapy seemed to be the most suitable field for her.

"The news hit me like a brick. Not only had I never considered physical therapy as a career, I hadn't the least bit of interest in it. I didn't know what to think", she says.

But later the results of the testing proved not to be so off-base. Miss McClaran enrolled in an education course in which she was required to do research regarding the value of art for young people.

This, coupled with experience working in the WTSU art department's new art therapy program at the Northwest Texas Hospital Psychiatric Pavilion, made a deep impression on her.

Art therapy, instead of physical therapy, was the field that seemed to offer a more promising future.

Four years at WTSU have widened Miss McClaran's outlook considerably, she says.

"When I used to clean houses I always made it a point to go the extra mile, to do my very best at everything. But, face it, anyone can clean house. I soon began thinking there just had to be more to life than this."

"Since I've been in school I've met many new people, been exposed to new ideas and found out what life is, what it can be, and what a person can do to make this world a better place to live in."

Domino Players, Sheriff Given Space In Monitor

The patrons of Byrd's Recreation Club and Sheriff L.S. (Slim) Johnston were the subects of an article in Friday's Christian Science Monitor.

The story, by staff correspondent Jack Waugh, retailed political talk by domino players at the club and reminscences by deputy Curtis Samples about Randall County's sheriff.

Samples is quoted as saying, "One day they found this body outside of town and tracked it to a fella in Missouri. The fella was the biggest man I ever saw. One of his hands was as big as the both of mine. But Slim went to Missouri by himself and brought the fella in and didn't even have to use handcuffs."

Mrs. Rider Is Vice-President Of AAUW

Members of AAUW voted donations of $35 to the Canyon Summer Recreation Program for use in the art program, $35 to the centennial fund for AAUW scholarships, $67 to a yearly fellowship program of the national organization, and $75 to be given to some worthy girl who will attend West Texas State University in the fall.

Mrs. Green urged members to invite eligible college graduates to join AAUW. Women who are interested in the organization may contact Mrs. Green.

The Canyon chapter will resume activities in the fall.

Mrs. John Rider was introduced as the new vice-president and program chairman for the American Association of University Women at a luncheon Saturday in the home of Mrs. Duane Guy.

Other committees are to be announced soon, said Mrs. John Green, President.

a mile for mileage but has not paid any other expenses incurred on the trips.

The question was raised as to whether the court should allow for meals, transportation and lodging. A decision on the subject was postponed until next week.

The court will accept applications until Monday for county road superintendent. Randall County's road superintendent resigned his position about a month ago.

Ray Schultz, business manger for Canyon Independent School District met with the court and requested the county provide about 50 yards of dirt to fill in the football field at Canyon High School.

Blancet, student body president, and Weldon Trice, assistant dean of student life for men, was appointed by President Cornette after the WTSU Prairie levelled an attack on the department.

The student publication alleged misconduct on the part of Security Officer Kennith L. Chambers and accused Security Chief Bobby Hudson of hushing up the incident and retaining Chambers. Chambers resigned early last month.

Dr. T. Paige Carruth, vice president for student affairs, last week asked Hudson to resign effective June 30.

Hudson has four weeks vacation coming which he is scheduled to begin June 1. Dr. Carruth said his pay will be terminated June 30.

Activity Center Summer Passes Available Soon

Summer membership passes to the West Texas State University Activity Center will be available beginning June 4, according to Frank Castleberry, director.

The passes will be in effect from June 4 through August 18 and may be obtained at the Activity Center Information desk beginning June 4, Castleberry said.

Individual memberships will be $25 and family memberships $50. Children under 14 years of age must be accompanied by parents when using the AC facilities, Castleberry stated.

With the passes, persons will be able to use the AC as if they were a student at WTSU, he added.

Grazing Permits Available Now

Any person who has need of forage for livestock because of unfavorable weather conditions should contact the Randall County ASCS office.

The ASC Committee has received authorization to permit emergency grazing and harvesting of forage from May 15 through June 14, on annual program set-aside acreage, according to Donald Lloyd.

Grazing past May 14 or harvesting this acreage without prior approval of the county ASC committee is a violation of program regulations.

If permission is authorized, a charge of $1 per acre will be made for grazing during any of the authorized period. The charge may not be prorated for any part of a month, according to Lloyd.

The charge for harvesting hay from this acreage is $3 per cutting acre.

Persons who have not already designated the set-aside acreage must do so when filing an application to graze. The field or tract must be measured and certified to the correct acreage.

The charge for the grazing may be paid when the application is filed or may be deducted from program payments.

"Representatives of Precinct 6 (and Precinct 7) convention condemns this unethical display and blatant partisanship on the part of the administration of WTSU."

Democratic precincts 11, 20, and 21 passed resolutions favoring the combining of Potter and Randall Counties and Republican precincts 12, 13, and 15, passed resolutions opposing the consolidation of county governments.

Several precincts, both Republican and Democratic, passed resolutions opposing busing of children to achieve racial balance and in favor of constitutional revision.

Democratic Precinct 12 passed a resolution favoring the inclusion in the Democratic platform to greatly decrease the military budget of the United States, to evince a softening of the belligerent attitude toward the Russians and the Chinese, and to openly and positively express an interest in brotherhood and good will to all mankind.

Drama Club to Perform

By MARY JO GRIFFIN

THE CANYON HIGH School Drama Club has done it again! Monday night in the High School auditorium, a melodrama "East Lynne" was presented. Heard lots of comments about how it was enjoyed. Surely was a goodie.

THE CHS SENIOR Class was honored with the senior dinner-dance last week at the Tascosa Country Club northwest of Amarillo. They report a real good time out there.

THE THIRD GRADE class of Mrs. Hooser had a field day last week in Palo Duro Canyon. There were hikes, games, lunch, train ride, and exploring nature.

It was quite an exciting day, and we all enjoyed it so much. Six mothers and Miss Day, a student teacher were in on all the fun. Miss Day also directed a play presented by the students in the classroom. It was real good, and we have some great "actors" in this group.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON IN the All Purpose Room at Rex Reeves School a recital for the elementary grade piano students of Mrs. Herschel Coffee was presented. Those students playing from our area were Stacy Hall, Tata Tully, Sheila Stark and from a little to the south of us, Kristina Prati. We are so proud of you music students, so do keep on with all your practicing.

MRS. R. H. SIMS JR. is home from the hospital and recovering from surgery very well. It's good to have you back home, Doris.

THERE ARE THREE little ones in our neighborhood with birthdays this week. They are Mentana Grace-May 11, Wade Weyerman-May 14 and Leslie Cartwright-May 17. A very Happy Birthday to each of you, blow out those candles and make good wishes.

THERE WAS A most beautiful solemnization of marriage in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Jones as their daughter Marsha became the bride of Tommy Goodwin of Archer City. The couple will live in Abilene where they are both students at Abilene Christian College. You will find more about this on the Society page of the Sunday News.

AGAIN, I WAS so fortunate to get to attend the Christian Business and Professional Women's Club meeting this Monday. This was a coffee in the home of a member in Amarillo. A devotional was given by Mrs. H.A. Somerville, the topic being 'Treasures in Heaven' based on Colossians 3:1-2 and Matthew 6:19-21. I just couldn't help but come away with new inspiration and such a good feeling.

A HAPPY MOTHERS' Day to every mother this coming Sunday. I thank God every day that I was raised in a Christian home with a Christian mother.

Jowell 4-H Club Views Method Demonstrations

Five method demonstrations were given May 5 when the Jowell 4-H club met at the Jowell School.

In response to a demonstration on community improvement by Gary Hinders, the club voted to clean up roadsides, mow the lawn at the community building, and have their well water checked for purity.

Rhonda Davis gave pointers on pet care. She told members not to bathe their dogs too often, because it dries out an animal's coat, but to brush them frequently. She also stressed good nutrition for pets and cleaning their dishes daily.

David Hall spoke on tornado safety, saying that a storm shelter is the safest place to be, but that a person in a car must use his own judgment about trying to outrun the funnel or taking shelter in a ditch until it has passed.

"Drugs and You" was the subject of David Abbott's demonstration. He discussed the sources of drugs, symptoms of users, and legal measures concerning narcotics.

Shawn Hall showed illustrations of five types of safe trash burners for demonstration titled "Smokey Says Burn Trash Safely." He urged members to burn trash after 4 p.m. on days when the wind is low and to place burners in a clearing away from buildings and trees.

Following the program, Janice Irlbeck led the group in singing. Mrs. Raymond Hinders was accompanist.

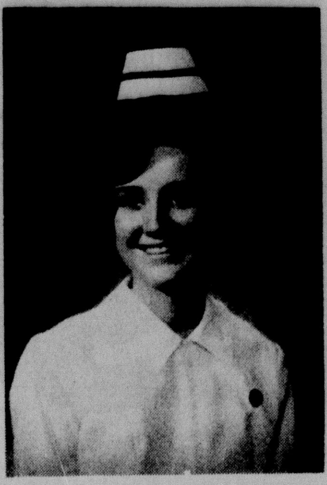
Refreshments were served by Mrs. Jim Irlbeck, the adult organization leader, to Jill Leavitt, Greg Hinders, Neal Hinders, Brenda Abbott, Brad Hinders, Jay Irlbeck, and those on the program.

Seven parents and leaders were present.

The club will hold its next regular meeting in September.

Miss Weldert To Graduate

Miss Vanita Weldert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Weldert of Route 1 Canyon, will receive a diploma from Northwest Texas Hospital School of Nursing at 8 p.m. May 19.



VANITA WELDERT

The commencement exercises will be held in the Civic Center Auditorium in Amarillo.

Wedding Vows To Be Renewed

The Rev. Mr. Hardin is to preach on "What You Did When You Said 'I Do'."

Tidbits here and there

By CAROL CRAIN

APRIL LAWRENCE, professional model, recently gave the Good Neighbors Club a style show with fashions from Sakowitz and The Door.

Within her narration April told grooming and modeling tips. Some of the things she mentioned included proper procedure for sitting and standing. Sitting with crossed legs tends to break down the muscles of the thigh and should be avoided, she noted.

Hands look graceful when one is placed forward with the other slightly behind it, both at the waist, or in the T-square position.

The model also pointed out that contrary to popular belief vertical lines are not slimming. "You look across a fence not up and down it", the model illustrated.

The dressmakers are again combining plaids and polka dots in matching or blending color schemes. She told the group to do this very carefully so that the effect doesn't look like a hodge podge.

"It is always better to be underdressed than over dressed," she pointed out.

A good way to tell if you are over dressed is awarding 5 points for the basic dress. Add one point for each accessory (pin, watch, rings, scarf, necklace, colored hose (counts 2), shoes with buckles (counts 2) or any other ornament. If your total is more than 15 you should take off something. (Preferably not the dress, however).

DARK HOSE ARE costume makers and add to the total effect of the outfit.

April noted that the markets are showing mid-knee and mid-calf lengths and hemlines at the ankle. The ankle-length is considered better than the floor-length because one might trip over the extra length of cloth which is also more easily soiled. Pants should break over the shoe.

By the way, the model pointed out that light colored shoes should only be worn with light colored clothes; dark shoes with everything else. If light colored shoes are worn with dark dresses they call attention to your foot size. (Not exactly what you want others to remember about you).

BEFORE LEAVING on your vacation howabout picking up a 'TEXAS" and-or "CAN-DO CITY" bumper sticker for your car at the Canyon Chamber of Commerce. This way you would be promoting "Our Town" while you are away.

And, when you get back please give me a call, so that I may mention it in this column.

Some of the plans I've heard lately sound exciting...Europe, Alaska, and other points throughout the USA.

THE GREETING CARD companies may not like it but...I received a very clever birthday card recently. It was a plain piece of paper folded twice with a greeting (You're not getting older...You're getting better) Happy Birthday! And here's the 2 bits I saved by making this card. Attached was a quarter! Loved it! Thanks Jo Ellen.

A DIRTY THIRTY WAKE Party was given as a birthday surprise for Roy McGregor last Saturday.

The party (like the ones thrown in Ireland after a funeral) was held at the McGregor home in the form of a barbeque for friends.

Each guest received a black arm band, tombstone name tags, funeral flowers were sent, and a scroll was given to the guest of honor which read in part "according the rank of the 'over the hill' gang" and was signed the Dirty Thirty Club.

As you might have guessed Roy was thirty years old that evening.

Couples attending included Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Triplett, Mr. and Mrs. Greg Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gravitt, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bell, all of Canyon, and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Followell of Dallas.

"THE WILD FLOWERS OF TEXAS" will be the topic of interest presented Monday evening when the Audubon Society meets.

The group, headed by Dr. Charles Smith of the WTSU faculty, will hear a slide presentation by Mrs. Clifford Drake of Phillips.

Canyon residents interested in the meeting are invited to attend. Canyon members include the Smiths and Mrs. Lula Moreman.

The meeting will be held at the lovely Amarillo Garden Center at 7:30 p.m.

Certainly, the birds, wild flowers, butterflies, etc. of nature add so much to the beauty of the world. We should try to enjoy them to the maximum.

In this busy world sometimes we don't stop to enjoy the little creatures around us who are providing music, gracefully moving through the air, or nodding in the gentle breeze.

Would we notice if, some spring, we awoke and found them gone?

Yes, we should certainly try to enjoy them to the fullest...and solve the ecology problem while there is yet time.

IF YOU ENJOY "cooking with soups" you may order a book by that title from Campbell's Soup Company through December 31 of this year.

Band Comes Home A Winner

By PAULINE HEFLEY

A "HEARTY" WELCOME HOME to those in the Canyon Band who have just returned from their trip to Atlanta where they received a "One" in Concert and received a second place as the most "outstanding" in Class 2A. Those who were in attendance on the trip from the Gene Howe area were Jane Taylor, David Finke, Patti Lovelady, Cindy Johnson, Larry Young, Tom Connally, Jeff and Ronnie Cates. The trip began Thursday last when all departed (via Air) for Dallas where they boarded a plane for Atlanta, Georgia.

THURSDAY EVE WAS spent in band rehersal (and you can see why they continue to bring home the awards) and Friday morn was the contest. Friday afternoon was the fun of Six Flags over Georgia (which I understand is very similar to our own Six Flags Over Texas). Saturday AM the young people visited the Cyclorama which is the tale of the battle of Atlanta and incidentally is purported to be the largest painting in the world with the figures extended on the ground. Saturday AM the group also visited Stone Mountain which portrays the three greats carved out of the mountain, General Robert E. Lee, General Stonewall Jackson, and Jefferson Davis, President of the Condederacy. Then Saturday afternoon they journeyed thru "underground" Atlanta, which is the oldest part of Atlanta with expressways running over it.

SUNDAY MORN THEY left by train for New Orleans. While in New Orleans they visited Preservation Hall which is notorious for its jazz music. Then Monday AM caught the flight for Big D and ye ole Amarillo Canyon. In the words of one of the participants they had a really "boss" time and it sure sounds so. A special "Thanks" to Mr. J. W. King who is their most capable director (did you all happen to see him all season playing in the Amarillo Symphony).

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO Shari Solbrig who celebrated her 13th with a swim party Friday last. A good time was had by all the young ladies who went for a dip.

CONGRATULATIONS TO LAWRENCE W. Taylor who just graduated from West Texas State University with a degree in Business Management. (Always was impressed with the way he managed.)

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO Mike Podzemny.

I DESERVED A real hand spanking for overlooking the 1st grade program last week and I appologize. Understand the production of "Peter Rabbit" was simply topshelf and a special thanks to the first grade teachers Mrs. Hinger and Mrs. Bell and to Mrs. Margie Phillips who worked so diligently on the show. And, let's not forget the mommies who made the costumes and then all the little darlings who made the show. Understand they had all kinds of vegetables such as lettuce and carrots. . .all those things that rabbits like. Must have been a really great show and one we're sorry we missed.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO Gay Cochran. And, speaking of teacher Gay, word comes to me that she passed her final exam this eve at school Hoorah, hooray!!

TAKING IN THE sand and salt water of the Gulf recently were Mrs. Darlene Campbell and daughters, Kelli and Darla. The three lovely ladies flew to Houston where they were joined by Darlene's relatives, Darel, Dottie, and DeAnn Wakefield. Then tootled over to Galveston for a few days. Darlene says they swam and did a little sightseeing, the usual things, and had a nice trip with lots of wind and many waves.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO Barbara Campsey.

DID YOU ALL catch the program presented by the music department of Gene Howe on Monday eve of this week? The sixth grade band under the direction of Mr. Dick Clardy, the student teacher, and the sixth grade choir under the direction of Mrs. Margie Phillips, made for a nice evening of entertainment.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO Jay Edwards.

CONGRATULATIONS TO IVAN Thompson, who is in the sixth grade at Gene Howe. Ivan won two belt buckles in rodeoing over at Gruver recently. Here is a date to mark down on your calandar. .this Saturday, May 13 ya'll ought to motor up to the formal dedication of the second cottage of the High Plains Children's Home on Chapman Road. A noon meal will be served to everyone in attendance at high noon and then the dedication by Mr. Bob Barnhill of the Central Church of Christ. You will be interested to know that the funding of this second cottage was completely supplied by The Central Church.

AND TO PUT the finishing touches on the cottage, the teenagers of the Central Church are sponsoring a car wash on Saturday, May 20, from 9 to 3 at the Central parking lot, 15th and Monroe Streets in Amarillo. You can have a clean motorcar for $1.50 and write the whole thing off, Ralph, the whole thing. See you there???

IT'S THAT TIME of year-field trips by the little people at Gene Howe to Palo Duro and a nice way to wind up the school year, eh what?

WORD COMES TO me that one of our young people received a ticket recently for driving his folks motorcar when in reality he didn't have his license. Some of his friends found that rather humorous. Did they?

THE GOOD LORD knew what He was doing when he made a birthday only one time a year-have the entire rest of the year to recuperate. That Alexis Hefley celebrated her 13th with a cookout and swim (former being planned by parents and latter being planned by Alexis) in Palo Duro Canyon Saturday last. Those going along for the merriment were Linda Ford, Shari Solbrig, Jean Cannon, Laura Dillard, Karla and Kim Thompson, Toy Stubblefield, Kim Doss, Alicia Fowlkes. Had some good eating and made several trips down Devils Slide, and the whole gang returned home wet, cold, tired, and with another memory to recall at some distant time in their lives. By the bye, would have sworn I saw our fearless leader down in the canyon, but didn't stop to chat, can you imagine that???

CONGRATULATIONS TO SHERRIE O'Dell, daughter of the Glenn O'Dells who received a "superior" rating recently when she played the piano in the National Piano Playing Guild. Sherrie is a student of Phoebe Stevenson in Amarillo and had to play ten pieces by memory. The judge was Martha Mitchell from Texas Women's University in Denton. This was a fine achievement for a sixth grader and I believe Sherrie was the only entrant from the Gene Howe area. Congratulations again Sherrie, we are proud of you.

SAY, YA'LL BE sure and go vote Saturday if you live in the city limits...either for or against the referendum on Urban Renewal. This voting is getting to be a regular thing, and with some real surprises now and then.

WELL, TROUP 130 of the Boy Scouts attended a Wilderness Camporee down at Camp Don Harrington this Friday nite. Those attending from our area were Gregg Dodson, David, Kurt and Allen Johnson, Bart Solbrig, Kenny Scott and Donald Oliver. The Scoutmasters are Karl Johnson and C. O. Hillman. Gregg Dodson was the Director of Registration, and Kurt Johnson was the Patrol Leader, which are both pretty big jobs. The troop won the Honor Unit award and second place ribbon for competition in wilderness survival. They report a good time and were not apparently affected by the deluge of water that those of us on higher ground received in the earlier part of the evening.

YA'LL PHONE ME your latest...376-9853 or 352-2089. Borrowed from A. J. Marshall..."Taxes are like muscles. Some you never knew you had until they begin to hurt."....pmh

Dodgers, Red Legs Tied For Baseball Loop Lead

Only two games were played in the Canyon major league last weekend, due to rain, both Friday games were called. Friday, the Braves and Red Legs game did get underway, but was called in the second inning. The game between the Dodgers and the Astros was called off.

Red Legs 9, Yankees 7

The Red Legs jumped to a four run margin in the first inning and never relinquished the lead, as they whipped the Yankees, 9-7.

The game was called in the fifth inning, because of the time limit. Bell and Brown were the winning pitcher-catcher combination for the Red Legs. They went the distance. Collins and Haws, who also went the five innings, were named the losing battery.

Camfield led the Red Legs batters as he blasted a single and a double, while team mate Bell racked up two singles. Ingram and McRoberts were both credited with singles.

Cheyne was the only Yankee batter to record two hits. He belted two singles, although Perry and Anderson, both hit a two bagger. Kendricks, Collins, Haws and Edmondson all got one base hit.

The Dodgers narrowed the four run lead in the second inning, scoring a run. Both teams ran in three runs in the third stanza, but the Red Legs widen the margin to, 9-4 in the fourth. The Yankees rallied for three runs in the fifth and final inning, but fell two runs short.

Braves 12, Astros 4

The Braves swamped the Astros 12-4 in the late game Friday night.

The Braves held the Astros scoreless through the first three innings while rolling up four runs for themselves. The Astros lit the scoreboard with a pair of runs in the fourth inning, but the Braves pushed four runners across the plate in the same stanza to make the score 8-2. In the fifth the Astros again went scoreless and the Braves piled four more runs on to end their scoring. The Astros eked out two final runs in the sixth, but that only narrowed the mrgin of defeat for them.

Danny Roberts and F. Palmer were the winning battery. Kent and Rudd started at the pitcher and catcher positions for the Astros and were the losing combo. Cates relieved Kent in the final inning.

Bostich racked up two singles, a double and a triple for the Braves, while Palmer hit two doubles and a single. Childs, Pratt and F. Palmer all had a base hit.

Kent blasted two home runs for the losing Astros and Miller had a double. Gardner, Johnson and Dillehay all had singles.

Palisades Palaver

Picnic Planned For Saturday

By VICKI HOOKER

ATTENTION: THE PALISADES annual picnic will be Saturday at 6:30 (weather permitting) in the picnic grounds. Joyce McDonald, club secretary, has already sent notices to everyone, but I just wanted to remind you to be sure and come. There'll be lots of good food and fun, and don't forget to bring $10 for your yearly dues. Bring enough food for your family. Drinks will be provided by the club.

JUST IN CASE it rains, we will have the picnic the following Saturday, same place and time. That date is May 20th.

IF YOU'VE DRIVEN past the Dustmans' house lately, you've probably noticed quite a change in its appearance. Bob Dustman, his sons, and two or three other young men can be seen down there almost any night of the week trying to put the house back together again. And they have done an outstanding job, if you remember what a mess they had to start with.

PART OF THE credit must go to their fine supervisor, Roma Dustman. And I'm not saying that to be facetious. She has been down there too with encouragement and moral support, and that has probably been more help than anything.

YOU ALL ARE doing a fine job, and we hope everything goes well and you are back in your own home again very soon.

WHILE WE'RE ON the subject of putting things back together again, I was told by Gerald Seitz that 20 yards of concrete are going to be needed for the tops of the flatcars when they are placed over the north bridge. A yard of concrete costs about $20, so I'm told, and if you could donate $20 for one yard, the club would really appreciate it. There's a possibility that this will be discussed at the picnic Saturday night, so you can find out more about it then.

SPEAKING OF THE Seitz family, happy belated birthday to Sherry who was 11 week-end before last, and to Chris who was 18 last Sunday.

THE RAIN WE'VE been having has brought several channel cats out of hiding, and several fishermen too! The creek banks were lined over the weekend with people of all ages, shapes, and sizes trying to "get the big one." Probably most of the ones that were caught were two and three pounds, along with several small perch and crappie that were reeled out. Most of the fish caught were tossed back, but everyone just had a good time trying anyway.

BRING A SACK lunch next Thursday, May 18, and come to the Palisades Home Demonstration Club Meeting! We will meet at 11:30 a.m. at Beverly Norman's in the Palisades. Beverly is going to teach us to make sand candles. If I'm not mistaken, this will be our last meeting of the year, so don't forget to come. I'll bet it's been a long time since you've played in the sand!

RAIN, HAIL, AND tornado warnings didn't keep Gene and Judy Webb and their family or Dan and Carolyn Bailey and their son home last weekend. The two families, along with Judy and Carolyn's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Lindsey, took a trip to Carlsbad Caverns, but they didn't escape the bad weather. Judy said it rained on them nearly the entire time they were gone (Saturday and Sunday), and Dan's windshield wipers quit working! Outside Carlsbad Sunday they ran into hail that was larger than golfballs! But they said they had a wonderful time, and we're glad they made it home safely.

MONDAY NIGHT THE Webbs and the Baileys had another outing, this time at the home of Joyce and Paul McDonald. It was a going away party for Judy and Carolyn's other two sisters, Sara and Belva, who will be moving to Arkansas.

YOU REMEMBER LAST week I mentioned that Lule and Wanell Childers' grandson, Michael Brown, had undergone his second of six ear surgeries. I talked with his mother the other day, who is back from Panama, and she said Mike came home last Saturday and is doing fine. Mr. and Mrs. Brown are moving back to Texas, so Mike will no longer be staying with Lule and Wanell. The Brown s will either be stationed here or in Killeen at Fort Hood. We'll miss little Mike here in the Palisades, but we're glad he and his family are back together again.

JOE MOSS, RANDY Carthel, and Jamie Walker all raced Sunday night at the Speed Bowl. Randy won first place in moto-cross on his 125 Penton. I'll apologize for not getting more information on this, but all I know is that Joe placed third in something. Jamie placed third in one heat, but did not place in the main race. Congratulations to all of you boys.

THAT'S ALL THE news from the Palisades this week. The board did meet Tuesday night, but I will not report on that until next week. Have a good week, and keep those newstips coming in!

Lake Tanglewood News

THE MONTH of May has been set aside to establish a charter membership roll for the Lake Tanglewood Community Church. Last Sunday was the first invitation and 73 signed the roll!

THE ROLL WILL be open to those wishing to move their letter from another church, or to those wishing to have an Associate membership in which they support the Lake Tanglewood Church and their own church elsewhere.

DR. NEWTON ROBISON, pastor of the church, was very pleased at the response shown Sunday and hopefully more will want to join this month. The Lake Tanglewood Community Church cordially invites you to visit this Sunday. Services begin at 9:00 a.m. in the clubhouse, and coffee is served in the cafe at 9:45. Following the service there is a song session and Sunday School class for the youngsters.

MARGE AND P.B. TAYLOR recently returned from a trip to Marshall where they celebrated their daughter's birthday. While in Marshall, they received a call from their son Jimmy and wife Judy, who said they couldn't wait till they got home to tell them the news. What was the news? You guessed it!. Marge and P.B. will be grandparents in a matter of months. Congratulations to you two.

FISHING HAS been good in the Lake recently. Mary Morris and Dorothy Fletcher have set out their trout line, and Friday when they checked it they found 3 channel cats about 2 pounds each! Good going girls!

BUT LAWRENCE VAN DORAN isn't going to let those women get ahead of him! He just bought a Newman bass boat, and Claudine says it's really fancy. Good Luck to you, too, Lawrence!

CLAUDINE VAN DORAN wanted me to mention a little more about the Bridge Club than was in last week's news. There are two tables of ladies who meet the first Wednesday of each month at 12:30 p.m. and play till 4:30. Each player puts in a quarter and the winner gets $1.25 and second place gets $.75. Coffee and some kind of dessert is served and everyone has a really good time.

THE ARTS AND CRAFTS CLUB will have a demonstration on Macrame, May 22nd. The club will meet at 10 a.m. in the Lake Tanglewood Clubhouse for the demonstration by Julia Mannings' sister, Rebecca. There will be a 50 cent charge for guests and a salad luncheon will be served. Everyone is invited to attend.

DO YOU HAVE some news about guests, trips, meetings, birthdays, anniversaries? Well, don't forget to give Lorene Walker a buzz at 622-0231 or Claudine Van Doran, 622-1681. They'll be more than happy to pass it on to me. I really am enjoying writing Lake Tanglewood News, and I hope you are enjoying reading it. So keep those newstips coming in!

SEE YOU NEXT WEEK!

Dog-Hunters Get Jolt

By MARY NEAL HENRY

PETE, THE WHITE Austrian Shepherd dog who likes cherry pie and brownies, was the object of an intensive search last Saturday. We found him about 9:30 that night at Lloyd and Dorothy Hooper's. Cecil Doughtery called and told us where he was. During the search, three of the children and I were driving down a ravine leading into the canyon, when I crossed what must have been a smaller ravine. We hit the top, the sides, doorknobs, each other. A pair of wire pliers on the dash hit me on the shin. I thought maybe I'd killed us all. Except for multiple bruises we survived and the old brown pickup still has four wheels under it. Tom's only comment was, "you all have tore up more rigs on those canyons."

MRS. CULP'S FRESH flowers Sunday Morning were beautifu. Brother Paul spoke for many of us when he said so. Mrs. Kate Vernon had her granddaughter from Canyon, Becky Anderson, with her and Mr. Waters had two of his granddaughters with him (Glen's girls) We had a visiting singer from Wayland. Gary was his name but I could not begin to pronounce the last name, much less spell it. He impressed me when he spoke of the seven wonders of the world, but the greatest wonder of all, is "God's Love For Me." And he sang a beautiful song. Baptists are aiming for a high attendance Sunday, May 21. Don't wait until then to come. Practice on the next Sunday.

Three Motorcycle To Logan, N.M.; Miss Buckles Walks For Mankind

By TOOTIE BYBEE

HELLO TO ALL of you from all of us in this little oasis of activity and friendship!! Hope the week past has been a pleasant one for you and yours. Did you vote?? Good!! Was hoping everyone did just that little thing. Can't say how very important it is to do so. Also, wanted to say thank you to The Canyon News for the opportunity to participate in the contest past. Didn't fare too well, but enjoyed meeting those I visited with and sure did enjoy returning some service to the News for suggesting having all these columns from surrounding areas. Just helping us all feel much more like part of the community and of Canyon. Thanks, Canyon News.

I HEARD THAT one of my good friends and neighbors had an unexpected and interesting trip to Logan, by way of motorcycle. If you're interested, his initials are I.J. Tow, along with brother Bob Tow and Marvin Carr. Said all enjoyed the little jaunt, especially Ann who was up until 4 Sunday morning driving to Logan to pick them up and bring them back home. Guess they were just too tired to ride back. Say, Forrest how does the road narrow!!

WELL MY GOOD pal Lora Lee Laird was a busy little gal this week end. She went roller skating with her Sunday School group from First Baptist Church in Canyon and took along her friend, Carla Schmidt. Then, on Sunday afternoon, she with friend, Debra Drost, went skating again. Lenise says extra big thanks to Lora and Carla for the pretty get-well card, she's feeling a lot better. And to everyone who called to check on her and ask about her, thanks.

THE BURDETTES HAVE all been real busy finishing up their new bedroom. Can't wait to get over and take a peek at it. I know Mikie is real happy with it.

CINDY BUCKLES HAS been "walking" again. She participated in the "Walk for Mankind" sponsored by the Y's. She walked, would you believe, 20 miles. The sponsors need to pay up now. Anyone who would walk 20 miles for a good cause like this needs all of our support. Hear so much about the bad young people do, this is some good. Just have to add, Cindy has looked like the proverbial Huck Finn in her overalls out painting their board fence this last week.

THE HUDSON HOUSEHOLD was just jumping with excitement and people this week end. Of course, you all know Blanche graduated Saturday night from WT and all the Hudsons and Perschbachers from far and wide came to the big event. I believe she told me she had 12 in all for dinner and supper Saturday. Sounds like they are all proud of her too.

CONGRATULATIONS TO DENISE Bonifield on being selected as a Jr Hi Cheerleader for next year. Nice try Glenna, we are proud of you.

THE CAMP FIRE girls worked on their beaded head bands this week in preparation for Grand Council Fire Thursday evening at Camp Don Harrington, starting at 7:30. The Kwahadi Indians will dance before the Grand Council is convened. If you have never been to a Camp Fire Girls Grand Council, come and watch, nothing is so lovely and meaningful as this ceremony. It will take place at the Council Ring at the Camp Don site. Oh, yes, I had a couple of calls about Camp Fire Girls this week, showing interest. If any of you are interested in Camp Fire Girls or just want more info, please feel free to call me and talk with me about it. 622-1471. While on the subject, thank you so much to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burdette, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Tow for the donations to buy our beautiful new group tent, we love it!!

THE LTC MET at the Gene Minor home this week. Said they all had a real good time and a really good, good dinner. See you at Mike Whitehead's this Thursday.

LOOKS LIKE THERE are a bunch of people getting ready for summer traveling, or week end summer fun. Saw a lot of boats being put in shape and campers mounted on pickups, etc. The Sanderses seem to be preparing to use their lovely big boat, also, the Rosses have a new one. Suppose it won't be too long til the fishermen like Mr. Hillard, will be all ready to set out.

DID YOU ALL get your puppies and kittens all fixed up with their rabies shots? Living out like we all do and the animals running loose, we sure all need to cooperate with the animal control and make sure our pets are protected.

ROGER AND MIKE Whitehead spent enjoyable evening with their Sunday School Department from the First Baptist Church in Amarillo, at the Baptist Assembly grounds. They had a steak dinner and played games and enjoyed the fellowship and lovely evening together.

GUESS ALL THOSE little sweeties, the third graders at Gene Howe, enjoyed their field trip to Palo Duro Canyon this past Friday. Heard the whole bunch got a little wet from the rain. But a good time was had by all. The Choir and Band program Monday was really great from the reports I received. Glenna Evans, Cristie Jones and Denise Malson all sang with the Choir. I'm sure there were many more of our kiddoes involved, just didn't know who. That Mrs. Phillips always does a bangup job with those youngsters.

WELL, FROM WHAT I see and hear, baseball season must be here. All the kiddoes are talking about practice and games. Several involved are Traca Cooper, Ricky Cooper, and Jay Moreland. Also, Mr. Moreland plays on a ball team for men. I know right where Barbara is going to be the better half of the summer. At a ball game.

THANKS TO MARY Jo Griffin over in Sherman for the news clippings. Mrs. Patterson says thanks "special".

DID YOU SEE: Mr. Boren and son, Lee, out enjoying their new motorcycles? Marty Johnson riding one of her beautiful horses, have you ever seen anyone look any prettier in the saddle than Marty?? The big gang of boys enjoying a long, lazy Sunday afternoon playing baseball on one of the vacant lots in the Park. The Holmans' beautiful front lawn and all the care they give it. The Steens working away on their beautiful new home. That beautiful baby, Marcy Minor. The wishing well the Evanses are building in their front yard.

Well, see you again soon.

ONE LAST WORD: To Mrs. Blanche Hudson: Do you have something you want to tell me. I'm waiting, but just so long!

4-H Club Will Ride In Canyon

Twenty members of the Coulter Road 4-H Club will participate in a trail ride in Palo Duro Canyon Saturday.

The students, ages 11 to 17, will ride their own horses on the trail to the light house, according to Mrs. Bill White, leader.

Each member will be responsible for their own provisions and care of themselves and their horses, Mrs. White said.

Activity leaders who will accompany the group will be Mr. and Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thompson and Mrs. Ruth Robison.

Kiwanis Softball Tryouts Scheduled

Team selections for the Canyon Kiwanis softball teams will be made at 11 a.m. Saturday at the Girls Softball Diamond.

All girls between the ages of 12 and 14 who wish to try out for the teams should be present at the meeting, according to Commissioner George Blackwell.

Regular season play will begin June 6 and end July 4.

A second try-out for the teams will be held at 11 a.m. June 3, Blackwell said.

Coaches for the four teams will be Nelson Vaughn, George Bertisher, David West and James Davis.

Audubon Society To See Slides

Mrs. Clifford Drake of Phillips will speak on wildflowers of the Texas Panhandle and members of the Texas Panhandle Audubon Society will view slides chosen to "show that spring is here" when the society meets at the Amarillo Garden Center at 7:30 p.m. Monday, according to Dr. Charles Smith, 2422 15th Ave., the group's president.

Dr. Smith said that all wildflower fanciers are invited to attend.

Delegates Uncommitted

The Democratic County convention will open Saturday with 146 of the 243 delegates umcommitted to any presidential candidate.

Forty five delegates are committed to George McGovern, 13 to Hubert Humphrey, and two for George Wallace.

The Democratic convention will be held at 7:30 p.m. at Rex Reeves Elementary School in Canyon. The Republican County convention will be held at 8 p.m. at Canyon Junior High.

Thirty seven delegates did not declare a preference at the Democratic precinct conventions.

The Randall County Democratic Executive Committee met Tuesday night and joined precincts in order that the total number of votes cast for the Democratic governor in 1970 would total 300, the number required for a delegate to the state convention.

Precincts 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 were joined, precincts 8 and 12 were joined, precincts 9 and 17 were joined, and 10 and 11 were joined.

A runoff for precinct chairman will be held in Democratic Precincts 6 and 20. Peter Peterson and Benny Turner will be on the June 3 ballot for chairman of Precinct 6 and Bruce Clelland and David Stultz will be opposed for chairman in Precinct 20.

Voting boxes were also designated forthe June 3 run-off election.

Precincts 1 through 7 will vote at Rex Reeves Elementary School, 15 through 18 at Coronado Elementary School, 9 through 14 at Alice Landergin Elementary School, and 8, 19, 20, and 21 at Ridgecrest Elementary School.

On the run-off ballot for county commissioner, Paul Lindsey will appear first on the ballot and Charles Donnell will appear second.

All Democratic precincts in Randall County with the exception of two, elected a majority of uncommitted delegates. Precinct 6 and Precinct 12 were controlled by McGovern delegates.

Precinct 6 elected 13 delegates pledged to McGovern and 12 uncommitted delegates. Precinct 12 elected 8 delegates for McGovern and four uncommitted delegates.

Precinct 5 elected five uncommitted delegates, five committed to McGovern and four committed to Humphery and Precinct 18 elected 6 delegates for McGovern and six uncommitted.

Two Republican precincts passed resolutions censoring the administration at West Texas State University for presenting gifts to Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes when he came through Canyon on his campaign train.

Precinct 6 held at Rex Reeves Elementary School and Precinct 7 held at the Canyon Community Center passed the following resolution:

Whereas, West Texas State University is an institution supported by the taxes of all Texans and WTSU's president and

New Ballots Proposed

Randall County Clerk LeRoy Hutton will ask the Secretary of State for permission to use punch-card mail absentee ballots in the general election in November.

Hutton made the proposal Monday to the commissioners court and the commissioners indicated after approval is received from the secretary of state the court will consider it.

Hutton said Randall County would be the first county in the state to go to the system if it is approved.

The cost of personnel and time involved in counting the paper mail-in ballots and the computer time were compared for the court.

Hutton said 10 to 12 people spent 8 hours counting 489 paper mail-in ballots at a cost of about $128.

On election night, 10,357 ballots were counted by the computer at West Texas State University in one and one-half hours at a cost of $192. The cost of the computer also included two tests of the computer, Hutton added.

Hutton said the county could expect 3,000 absentee ballots to be cast in the general election and the number could go as high as 5,000 if voter registration hits 30,000.

Using punch-card mail ballots would save money in the long run, Hutton declared.

Hutton reported to the court, the computer program written by West Texas State University Computer Center was the best he had used. The program is written for four parties and can be used over and over again, Hutton explained.

The court approved a request by Mrs. Audrey Bruse to attend a Tax Assessor-Collectors conference May 14-17 in San Antonio.

The court also discussed the expenses paid to county employees when making such trips. In the past the county has paid 10 cents

60 Students Tested

Some 60 Rex Reeves Elementary School children are a part of a control group being tested in an effort by the Texas Air Control board to determine if there is a build-up of heavy metals coming from the American Smelting & Refining plant in Amarillo.

Supervising the tests was Dr. Ernest King, biologist on the staff of the air control board. He was being assisted by Dr. Ronald Coleman, with Environmental Consultants of Oklahoma City.

Dr. King said 30 boys and 30 girls in the 10 to 11 year age group were tested here. Dr. Coleman is aiding Dr. King in the new micro-chemical analysis technique through which tests are run on a small amount of blood taken by pricking a child's finger.

Dr. King reported that the tests are being made for cadium and lead in the blood.

Tests were run earlier this week on 60 children each from Willow Vista and Rolling Hills Schools, both down wind from the smelter in Amarillo.

Tests are slated for a like number of children in Forrest Hill and Whittier Schools.

The tests were run on children here so they could be compared to tests run on children in the vicinity of the smelting plant.

Bryce Slack, assistant principal at Rex Reeves, said the children were chosen at random and parental permission was obtained for testing.

Tanglewood To Elect Three

The filing deadline for the offices of mayor and two city aldermen at Lake Tanglewood is Saturday, according to Jim Fletcher.

The election for the three offices will be May 20 at the Tanglewood Club House. Candidates must file with Bob Gray, city secretary.

Two candidates have filed for mayor, Ernest Oakley and Nelson Cash. Four have filed for the two alderman positions, Eldon McNabb, J. D. Trice, Paula Gray, and Jim Thomas.

All of the candidates will run at-large, Fletcher said.

Decision Reversed

City Given "A" Rating

The city of Canyon was given an A rating for utility bonds last week by the Moody Investment Service of New York City.

City Manager George Loudder said this will mean a $73,000 savings for the city over a 10 year period on an issue of 1957 water works bonds which have been refunded.

The bonds had been drawing 4¾ percent but have been re-funded at 4½ percent.

City utility bonds previously had held a B rating.

"There is no way of projecting the benefit to the city but the new rating undoubtedly will be of great benefit if we ever need to float another utility bond issue," Loudder said.

The new rating was issued as an aftermath of a visit to New York by several Canyon city officials. At first Canyon was given a BAA1 rating which is just lower than an A rating.

Bob Davis, Columbian securities representative and Canyon financial adviser, contacted the rating firm and asked why an A rating was not granted.

The firm expressed concern about depletion of underground water in the Panhandle.

City Engineer Bill McMorries replied with data on the city water field as well as reserves in the Panhandle area.

The firm reversed itself and granted the A rating.

Loudder said there will be no immediate effect on general obligation bonds but he feels that the A rating on utility bonds will be of some help when a new rating on general obligation bonds is considered.

Tornadoes Reported Just North Of Canyon

Threatening thunderstorms moved into Canyon from the west about 7 p.m. Tuesday night and dropped .40 inch of rain in Canyon and up to two inches in the area.

Two funnels were reported by the public near Buffalo Bowl but were not confirmed, according to the Randall County Sheriff's office.

Crosby Hammonds of the sheriff's office said sheriff's deputies watched the clouds but did not sight a funnel and the alarm was not put out in Canyon.

Two inches of rain was reported north of Canyon and two inches south of the city. Pea-sized hail fell at Buffalo Lake but no damage was reported. Happy received an inch and a half.

No damage due to win was reported, Hammonds said.

A funnel near Lake Tanglewood was reported by the public but the sheriff's office said they received no confirmation of this funnel.

Around the county Graham Ranch 20 miles south of Canyon reported 1.9 inches; Tom Wilhelm, Happy, 1.4 inches; Edgar Robinson, 10 miles west of Happy, 1.7 inches; Raymond Batenhorst, near Buffalo Lake, .7 of an inch; Umbarger, .3 of an inch; Glen Dowlen, 3 miles east of Ralph Switch, 3.30 inches; and Charlie Gerald, north of Canyon, about a half inch.

Wanted: 100 Area Water, Inc. Members

The Randall County Unit of Water, Inc., needs 100 members by the Monday meeting of the organization in order to have a member on the board of Water, Inc.

Bob Lindsey said Tuesday the membership now stands at 21 members and he had sent membership forms to 120 persons in the county.

Lindsey said he expected several of the memberships to be confirmed by Monday. The meeting of the organization will be held at 8 p.m. at the Farm Bureau building.

Tom Williams of Water, Inc., will be present at the meeting to present a film on water importation, Lindsey said.

Permanent officers of the Randall County Unit will be elected at the meeting. Officers will be nominated from the floor.

Water, Inc., is now working on a plan to import water from the Mississippi River. Lindsey said it is predicted the Panhandle only has enough water to last for the next 20 years and it will take 20 years to complete the plan after it is approved.

Anyone interested in joining Water, Inc., should contact Lindsey. Dues for the organization are $25 a year.

School Board Tour Reveals Problems

Maintenence and custodial care is considered one of the school district's most pressing problems, Dr. Dudley Moore, school board president said this week.

Dr. Moore's comments came after the annual inspection tour of school plants by the board of trustees.

"We are going to need an electrical engineer for one thing," Dr. Moore went on.

Dr. Moore said board members are most concerned about maintenance at the high school in the dressing rooms and gymnasium area.

"It's terrible," the board president went on. "It probably is because of the tremendous traffic in those areas.

"We will have to spend more money and get more personnel to do the job."

Pointing to the need for a full time electrician, Dr. Moore said there are 500 electric motors and compressors in the high school and 400 in the junior high school alone.

"It's going to take a well qualified man to do the job and I understand it will cost from $12,000 to $15,000 a year."

The board president said it is going to be necessary to clean up the school farm area and obtain 10 to 15 acres elsewhere, preferably with no major highways between it and the high school.

Dr. Moore said board members found that considerable roofing must be done as roofs have been cracked by dry weather.

Plans call for a new front on the industrial arts building in downtown Canyon.

"We found from an educational standpoint things were real good," declared Dr. Moore. "The attitude of both teachers and students is good."

CHS Band Rated Tops

The Canyon High School Eagle Band was awarded a first division rating by each of three judges at the Fourth Annual Six Flags Over Georgia Band Festival Friday.

The judges were Dr. William D. Revelli, retired from the faculty of the University of Michigan, Al Wright, band director at Purdue University, and William Swor of Louisiana State University.

The band flew to Atlanta last Thursday to compete with 16 other bands in its classification, mostly from the eastern states.

After their performance, they spent the rest of Friday in the Six Flags Park.

Saturday was devoted to sightseeing in the Atlanta area which included the Cyclorama, a mural which portrays the battle for Atlanta during the Civil War, Stone Mountain Park, and Underground Atlanta, old buildings covered over by the construction of freeways and viaducts. The underground city has restaurants, souvenir shops, and tourist attractions, all with a Gay Nineties atmosphere.

During a dinner party that evening at the Sheraton Olympic, band members visited with Gary Laramore, assistant to band director J. W. King, who is doing a three-month tour of duty at Fort Benning, about 150 miles from Atlanta.

The musicians travelled to New Orleans by train Sunday, and heard Dixieland jazz in the French Quarter's Preservation Hall. On Monday, they flew home.

Chaperones who accompanied the band were Mr. and Mrs. King, John Sommer, Carroll Killingsworth, Mrs. Betty Brown, and Mrs. Jane Westberry.

A. R. Potts Named WT Security Head

An administrative panel looking into matters involving the West Texas State University Security Department is scheduled to report to Dr. James P. Cornette some time this month.

A. R. "Hank" Potts has been named temporarily to supervise the security department pending its reorganization and selection of a permanent security chief.

Potts has been with the department for the past 6 years and as second in command holds the rank of captain.

The three-man panel has spent more than a month conducting hearings in connection with the investigation.

Dr. Ronald Huffstutler, panel chairman, has declined all comment.

The panel consisting of Gary

FROM THE CANYON RIM

by Troy Martin

Richard Nixon saw his finest hour Monday night when he told the nation that he was willing to take whatever risks necessary to secure the safety of 60,000 American troops in Vietnam and the return of prisioners being held by the communists.

Nixon is doing what should have been done seven years ago——what Congressman Bob Price has been advocating the past five years——he is mining Haiphong harbor in North Vietnam and stopping the flow of supplies to the aggressor.

He made it clear that he has no choice unless we want another bloody Dunkirk in trying to get Americans out of Vietnam.

The rear guard of such a withdrawal would be cut down like ripe wheat if the northern invaders are allowed to roll unimpeded into South Vietnam.

Perhaps George McGovern could countenance such a possibility. I don't think Richard Nixon can and neither can I.

I know a young man standing in the shadow of the draft who expressed my feelings pretty well just after Nixon's talk.

"I'm glad the United States had begun acting like the United States again," he declared.

I was surprised at the poor showing Ben Barnes made in the election Saturday but I doubt that I was as surprised as Ben.

Come to think of it, Ben's defeat was not all that surprising. In 12 years in politics, this was the first time Barnes came up against any real competition.

Barnes pulled some real boners in his campaign. The worst probably was when his forces spread a smear story on Dolph Briscoe that backfired.

Preston Smith was not surprised at what happened to him Saturday. There had been gloom at Smith headquarters for a long, long time.

I felt it a year ago in talking to the governor's staff.

I honestly was astonished when Governor Smith announced for a third term.

In March Barnes came through Canyon on a campaign train.

A goodly crowd gathered at the depot. In fact, there must have been a lot of people there for curiosity rather than loyalty because the crowd outnumbered the votes Ben got in Canyon last Saturday.

Dr. James P. Cornette presented the lieutenant governor a buffalo head.

Briscoe came here several times. Although he wasn't accorded a greeting by the Chamber of Commerce Red Carpet Committee he was provided a captive audience of students on the WT campus.

He was allowed to make a speech in the dining hall at meal time.

Senator John Tower spoke on campus last fall.

Anyway, a Republican precinct convention Saturday voted to censure Dr. Cornette for making the presentation.

I think it's time the whole story is told.

True the presentation was made and the bearded beast of the rolling plains was accepted by the lieutenant governor.

However, a car belonging to a well-known Randall County Democrat was waiting at the depot at Tulia and whisked the buffalo head back to its permanent resting place at West Texas State.

The university really never meant to part with it.

And Ben Barnes really didn't want it.

"What would I do with a buffalo head?" he was quoted as having said in agreement to its return.

There was little in the election returns to cause Amarillo State Representative Ben Bynum and Democratic Committeeman Joe Batson to rejoice.

As a matter of fact Bynum has been making some poor choices all year.

He came down to Canyon, outside his own district, and created sympathy for Republican Mrs. Audrey Bruse, county tax assessor-collector, by criticizing the way she was running her office.

Home folks criticize but they don't allow it from outsiders. Even staunch Democrats rallied around Mrs. Bruse when she was attacked by Bynum.

Bynum brought more wrath down on his head when he advocated combining Randall and Potter Counties.

He rode the campaign train of loser Ben Barnes dressed immaculately in engineer's garb.

He voted against Speaker Rayford Price, not once but four times.

I understand that Governor Preston Smith wasn't exactly over joyed when Joe Batson, whom Smith appointed, used his helicopter in the Barnes campaign.

Such are the fortunes of war and politics.

Someone in antiquity so aptly said: "You only get one shot at the king."

Now let's take a look at my predictions for the first primary.

I predicted right on the money that Charlie Donnell and Paul Lindsey would be in a run off for county commissioner. I didn't think that Raymond Batenhorst would come so close or that Bob Henry would run such a good race.

Henry was the youngest of the four by several years. He proved himself a fine campaigner and my guess is that we'll be hearing from him again. Next time he will be hard to beat.

I was right in picking Bryan Poff to beat Hudson Moyer in the Democratic Primary and Rhett Plank to take Bob Slough in Republican balloting.

I correctly picked Briscoe for the run off but was flabbergasted when Sissy Farenthold instead of Barnes wound up as his second primary opponent.

I was right in predicting that Ralph Yarborough would cuff (perish the thought) Barefoot Sanders although Barefoot got into a run off with the former senator. Barefoot had better not go into the race barefoot——he'll need track shoes——if he's going to beat Ralph in June.

All in all, I feel I came pretty close for an amateur.

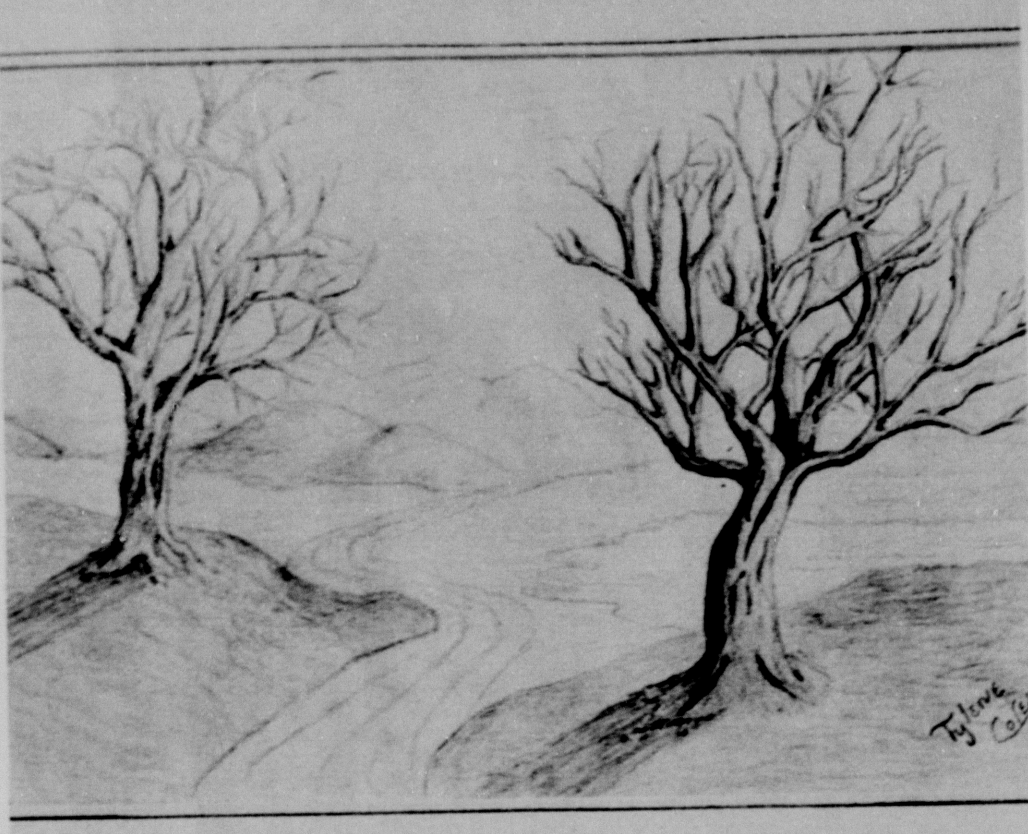
Hoover Signs Intent Letter With Baylor

Canyon High School speed merchant John Hoover inked a letter of intent with Baylor and will receive a track scholarship.

"We feel John is a definate sleeper and is a fine prospect," said Bear track coach Clyde Hart. "He was hurt this season and a lot of people overlooked him."

Hart said he has followed Hoover for the past two years. "He is a good athlete and a good student," Hart declared.

Hoover represented the Eagles at the state track meet his junior year in the 440 and the regional meet this year in the 100 yard dash.



This charcoal and pencil landscape was one of the first creative efforts of Tylene Cole, a quadriplegic confined to a wheelchair. Since an auto accident paralyzed her two years ago, Miss Cole has enrolled at West Texas State University, where she is studying art and hopes to pursue a career in art therapy.

Quadriplegic Improves Strength Through Work As Art Student

Few persons can better explain the value of art in life than West Texas State University sophomore Tylene Cole, a quadriplegic student who has been confined to bed and wheelchair for three years.

The pretty young art student, originally from Odessa but now residing at the Golden Age Rest Home in Amarillo, enrolled at WTSU last fall with no previous art training.

Deprived of the use of all hand, leg and foot muscles and having only limited use of arm muscles as a result of an automobile accident, Miss Cole previously spent 13 months as a bedridden patient at a rest home in Andrews.

Last year she came to the Bivins Rehabilitation Center in Amarillo, where she conquered what she considers the No. 1 enemy of a quadriplegic—the bed.

Always possessed with a "love to create with the hands," Tylene, who before her accident planned a career in designing and modeling, felt that all hopes were dashed after her accident.

One inspirational event in her life, she says, was meeting an artist who was also quadriplegic, even more severely stricken than Tylene. After showing her some of his watercolors and charcoal drawings, Tylene began to consider the possibility that she, too, might be able to create things.

Through the encouragement of counselor for the Texas Educational Rehabilitation Center, Orrell Vice and Dr. Emilio Caballero, head of the WTSU art department, Miss Cole was able to surmount her fears of returning to school, she says.

Upon enrolling at WTSU, many persons and several organizations joined to help Tylene meet some of the daily obstacles in her life.

Among them is Gamma Sigma Sigma, a service club, whose members take care of her physical needs. The organization also made her an honorary member this year.

Allene Stovall, assistant professor of health and education, and several students in the physical education department are engaged in driving the van that brings Tylene to school every morning and in taking her to classes.

Other students hoist Tylene's wheelchair up stairs and take her class notes. Exams are given to her orally.

Tylene has shoulder muscles. A brace supports one paralyzed hand, but someone must put brushes and other utensils in the small slots in the brace.

Since all of her physical momentum in drawing, weaving and other activity comes from her shoulder muscles, even the smallest tasks require a great deal of time and much physical strength.

"But in the past year I have come up with a hundred imaginative ways to work using what I have, and the work I've been doing has actually improved my physical strength through exercise," she says.

In the course of the year, Tylene has created a number of artistic items—bamboo placemats, woven wall-hangings, a baby blanket and a small charcoal and pencil landscape which was recently displayed at the new Amarillo Art Center.

Although she plans to explore other fields of artistic creation, her over-all aim is to pursue a career in art therapy.

This dream, she says, seems to be coming to fruition. This summer she will be one of the art students participating in the WTSU art department's therapy program at the Northwest Texas Psychiatric Pavilion in Amarillo.

MISS TYLENE COLE

"I think I can do a lot to help these people," she says. "In a way all of us who are confined to wheelchairs are trailblazers. If we can achieve and create something in our lives, we will perhaps open roads for others to follow.

"A person in a wheelchair can become one of two things. He can become a self-pitying nothing or he can become an even better person than he was before his accident.

"I don't think I'll ever become resigned to my handicap—there will always be battles to fight. But in having to climb many mountains and meeting with so many obstacles along the way, I somehow think one comes out the better for it—as if God, in taking something away gives something even better in return."

Miss Cole is the daughter of Mrs. Velma Bradley of (206 Conet Dr.) Odessa and Lloyd Bradley of San Angelo. She was graduated from Odessa High School and attended Odessa College.

Weston, Boeka Win Tourney At Hunsley

Dick Weston and Jerry Boeka, who were tied for second after the first round, one stroke out of first with a 68, fired a sizzling 64 Sunday to capture the First Annual Hunsley Hills Partnership. Ken Bailey and Hack Cogburn toured the course with a 67 Saturday to take the first round lead, but Weston and Boeka and the Tommy Rose-Steve Webb team were just a stroke back at 68.

Cogburn and Bailey fired an identical 67 in the second and final round Sunday, for a runner up finish, while Weston and Boeka trimmed four strokes off their score for a 134 win.

Rose and Webb soared four strokes for a third place 140 finish.

Dee and Levens scored a 74 to nab the first flight lead, while Joe Ziegler and Bill Bell were tied for third three strokes back. Dees and Levens padded their first day total by three on Sunday, but Ziegler and Bell cut off a spectacular nine strokes on the final 18 for a 77,68—145 first place finish in the first flight.

The team of David Allen and Brad Ramsower fired 78 the first day in the first flight competition and were also seemingly out of the competition when they too trimmed nine strokes off their score to finish second, with a 147.

Jerry Jacobs and Ron Mills grabbed a one stroke lead with a 73 in the first round of the third flight. On Sunday the pair matched that score again winning by a three stroke margin over Gayle Pyeatt and J. E. Fergason.

Larry Peters and Jay Phillips won the third flight with an 82,74 156. They were in a two way tie for third at the end of the first day with an 82, but cut eight strokes off on the final 18 to edge B. B. Kendrick and Roy Winters by one stroke.

I would like to thank the voters of Randall County for showing confidence in me by supporting my bid for Re-Election

I will continue to work for Randall, Potter and Carson Counties in the special session this summer and would appreciate your continued support in November.

Sincerely,
Bryan Poff

MARCH12 THROUGH March 19 was designated Fire Prevention Week and the Women's Auxiliary held a spaghetti supper. Cash prizes were awarded to the children who entered fire prevention posters in the contest. First Place went to LaViye Rowland, 9, and Second Place went to Lawrance Rowland, 8. There was a three-way tie for Third Place and those winners were Dalene Rowland, 12, Rhonda Shaw, 5, and Michael Shaw, 7. LaViye, Lawrance, and Dalene are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Rowland, 119 Siesta. Rhonda and Michael are the children of Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw, 244 La Fiesta.

I'D LIKE TO request all members of Siesta Plaza who have any interesting information for The Canyon News to call me at 353-2024 and I'd be ever so glad to write it in the column.

Domino Players, Sheriff Given Space In Monitor

The patrons of Byrd's Recreation Club and Sheriff L.S. (Slim) Johnston were the subects of an article in Friday's Christian Science Monitor.

The story, by staff correspondent Jack Waugh, retailed political talk by domino players at the club and reminscences by deputy Curtis Samples about Randall County's sheriff.

Samples is quoted as saying, "One day they found this body outside of town and tracked it to a fella in Missouri. The fella was the biggest man I ever saw. One of his hands was as big as the both of mine. But Slim went to Missouri by himself and brought the fella in and didn't even have to use handcuffs."

Spring Graduation Activities Fill Time, Make Memories

By SUSAN DOLLE

END OF THE year school activities are coming pell mell. Besides semester tests, there are parties and banquets, dinners and dances, each of which will hold lifetime memories for the participants.

THE JACK BRANDT family is involved in two graduations this spring. Sadie Brandt received a degree from West Texas State University Saturday after combining homemaking and study for five and one-half years. the Brandt's 17-year-old son Dwight will graduate from Canyon High school on May 26.

MRS. BRANDT RECEIVED her degree in elementary education with an endorsement for teaching the mentally retarded and a minor in biology. She will attend classes this summer for certification in language learning disabilities.

A HIGH HONOR student, she is listed in Alpha Chi, Kappa Delta Pi, and Beta Beta Beta, national honor socities. She also participated in the Student Education association.

A DIFFERENCE IN graduating as a wife and mother is that it seems as though the whole family received the diploma, she reports. Her husband Jack, who she says has given her much support, farms in the Umbarger community. Philip, the oldest son, is also a WTSU student. Other sons are Steve, fifteen-year-old student at Canyon Junior High, and Mark, a nine-year-old at Rex Reeves.

RESPONSIBILITIES AS A senior class mother have filled many days this spring for Mrs. L. L. Raef whose daughter Mary has been senior class president. The senior parents sponsored a dinner dance for the graduates at Tascosa Country Club in Amarillo last Friday evening. Special gift for each graduate was a decoupaged graduation invitation which the parents had prepared. Food and arrangements for the all-night senior party will also be Mr. and Mrs. Raef's charge, with the help of other parents.

THERE ARE A multitude of things a mother must do, only some of which are school activities. On Mother's Day, she is thankful for the work she was given to do. Minor frustrations, like the unwashed mixing bowl in the sink after the cupcakes are already gone, the sack lunch left noticed on the kitchen cabinet five minutes after the bus is gone are forgotten when the children are more excited about Mother's Day than you are and hand over their wrapped hand-made gift Sunday morning. It all seems worthwhile, after all.

THE CHARLES BECKMANS have recently been visiting in Dalhart where their daughter and son-in-law welcomed a son, David April 28. Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Przilas have three other children, Colette, 8; Sandra, 6; and Douglas, 4. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Przilas of Wall.

THE A. C. EVERS family wishes to thank the Knights of Columbus for donations of blood, the Altar Society for visits and cards, and neighbors and friends for their prayers, kindness and visits when Mr. Evers was in the hospital and ill at home. They also wish to thank Monsignor Matthew F. Schafle for his consideration during the illness.

Opportunity Plan Gives Help To Art Therapy Student At WT

Babysitting and cleaning other people's houses were most of what Judith McClaran of Idalau knew of life before coming to West Texas State University four years ago.

A 1966 graduate of Idalou High School, Miss McClaran says when other schoolmates talked of going to college she never considered the possibility of pursuing a higher education.

"Even when I was a senior in high school," she says, "I was cleaning house and babysitting for 50 cents an hour. My parents couldn't afford to send me to college, so I never considered it seriously."

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman McClaran of Idalou.

Then one of her employers told her about WTSU and through two students here she learned about the school's Opportunity Plan, Inc., headed by Milton (Buff) Morris.

Finding out that through an OPI Loan supplemented by a National Defense Student Loan she could go to school, she was soon enroute to Canyon.

In the fall of 1968, the day before registration was to begin, she arrived on campus without money or a place to live. Other than clothes and personal effects, she had only a drinking glass and a cooking pot.

"I didn't think to bring anything else, since I thought I would be living in a dorm," she says. "But when I stated my preference for living off-campus since I was 21, the student financial aids office found me a place in a rooming house."

Living with another girl, the twosome had to make do with only the glass and pot for cooking until Miss McClaran's mother came to the rescue with other cooking utensils, she says.

But Miss McClaran still had another problem—she didn't know what to major in, although she had an inkling that she would like to find a field related to art.

After extensive vocational aptitude and preference tests administered by the university's Testing and Counseling Center, the results showed physical therapy seemed to be the most suitable field for her.

"The news hit me like a brick. Not only had I never considered physical therapy as a career, I hadn't the least bit of interest in it. I didn't know what to think", she says.

But later the results of the testing proved not to be so off-base. Miss McClaran enrolled in an education course in which she was required to do research regarding the value of art for young people.

This, coupled with experience working in the WTSU art department's new art therapy program at the Northwest Texas Hospital Psychiatric Pavilion, made a deep impression on her.

Art therapy, instead of physical therapy, was the field that seemed to offer a more promising future.

Four years at WTSU have widened Miss McClaran's outlook considerably, she says.

"When I used to clean houses I always made it a point to go the extra mile, to do my very best at everything. But, face it, anyone can clean house. I soon began thinking there just had to be more to life than this."

"Since I've been in school I've met many new people, been exposed to new ideas and found out what life is, what it can be, and what a person can do to make this world a better place to live in."

Mrs. Rider Is Vice-President Of AAUW

Members of AAUW voted donations of $35 to the Canyon Summer Recreation Program for use in the art program, $35 to the centennial fund for AAUW scholarships, $67 to a yearly fellowship program of the national organization, and $75 to be given to some worthy girl who will attend West Texas State University in the fall.

Mrs. Green urged members to invite eligible college graduates to join AAUW. Women who are interested in the organization may contact Mrs. Green.

The Canyon chapter will resume activities in the fall.

Mrs. John Rider was introduced as the new vice-president and program chairman for the American Association of University Women at a luncheon Saturday in the home of Mrs. Duane Guy.

Other committees are to be announced soon, said Mrs. John Green, President.

Activity Center Summer Passes Available Soon

Summer membership passes to the West Texas State University Activity Center will be available beginning June 4, according to Frank Castleberry, director.

The passes will be in effect from June 4 through August 18 and may be obtained at the Activity Center Information desk beginning June 4, Castleberry said.

Individual memberships will be $25 and family memberships $50. Children under 14 years of age must be accompanied by parents when using the AC facilities, Castleberry stated.

With the passes, persons will be able to use the AC as if they were a student at WTSU, he added.

a mile for mileage but has not paid any other expenses incurred on the trips.

The question was raised as to whether the court should allow for meals, transportation and lodging. A decision on the subject was postponed until next week.

The court will accept applications until Monday for county road superintendent. Randall County's road superintendent resigned his position about a month ago.

Ray Schultz, business manger for Canyon Independent School District met with the court and requested the county provide about 50 yards of dirt to fill in the football field at Canyon High School.

Grazing Permits Available Now

Any person who has need of forage for livestock because of unfavorable weather conditions should contact the Randall County ASCS office.

The ASC Committee has received authorization to permit emergency grazing and harvesting of forage from May 15 through June 14, on annual program set-aside acreage, according to Donald Lloyd.

Grazing past May 14 or harvesting this acreage without prior approval of the county ASC committee is a violation of program regulations.

If permission is authorized, a charge of $1 per acre will be made for grazing during any of the authorized period. The charge may not be prorated for any part of a month, according to Lloyd.

The charge for harvesting hay from this acreage is $3 per cutting acre.

Persons who have not already designated the set-aside acreage must do so when filing an application to graze. The field or tract must be measured and certified to the correct acreage.

The charge for the grazing may be paid when the application is filed or may be deducted from program payments.

Blancet, student body president, and Weldon Trice, assistant dean of student life for men, was appointed by President Cornette after the WTSU Prairie levelled an attack on the department.

The student publication alleged misconduct on the part of Security Officer Kennith L. Chambers and accused Security Chief Bobby Hudson of hushing up the incident and retaining Chambers. Chambers resigned early last month.

Dr. T. Paige Carruth, vice president for student affairs, last week asked Hudson to resign effective June 30.

Hudson has four weeks vacation coming which he is scheduled to begin June 1. Dr. Carruth said his pay will be terminated June 30.

others presented gifts to a Democratic candidate for governor on Feb. 22 as representative of the tax supported institution while the candidate was on an expensive and explicitly political campaign trip,

"Representatives of Precinct 6 (and Precinct 7) convention condemns this unethical display and blatant partisanship on the part of the administration of WTSU."

Democratic precincts 11, 20, and 21 passed resolutions favoring the combining of Potter and Randall Counties and Republican precincts 12, 13, and 15, passed resolutions opposing the consolidation of county governments.

Several precincts, both Republican and Democratic, passed resolutions opposing busing of children to achieve racial balance and in favor of constitutional revision.

Democratic Precinct 12 passed a resolution favoring the inclusion in the Democratic platform to greatly decrease the military budget of the United States, to evince a softening of the belligerent attitude toward the Russians and the Chinese, and to openly and positively express an interest in brotherhood and good will to all mankind.

Drama Club to Perform

By MARY JO GRIFFIN

THE CANYON HIGH School Drama Club has done it again! Monday night in the High School auditorium, a melodrama "East Lynne" was presented. Heard lots of comments about how it was enjoyed. Surely was a goodie.

THE CHS SENIOR Class was honored with the senior dinner-dance last week at the Tascosa Country Club northwest of Amarillo. They report a real good time out there.

THE THIRD GRADE class of Mrs. Hooser had a field day last week in Palo Duro Canyon. There were hikes, games, lunch, train ride, and exploring nature.

It was quite an exciting day, and we all enjoyed it so much. Six mothers and Miss Day, a student teacher were in on all the fun. Miss Day also directed a play presented by the students in the classroom. It was real good, and we have some great "actors" in this group.

SUNDAY AFTER NOON IN the All Purpose Room at Rex Reeves School a recital for the elementary grade piano students of Mrs. Herschel Coffee was presented. Those students playing from our area were Stacy Hall, Tata Tully, Sheila Stark and from a little to the south of us, Kristina Prati. We are so proud of you music students, so do keep on with all your practicing.

MRS. R. H. SIMS JR. is home from the hospital and recovering from surgery very well. It's good to have you back home, Doris.

THERE ARE THREE little ones in our neighborhood with birthdays this week. They are Mentana Grace-May 11, Wade Weyerman-May 14 and Leslie Cartwright-May 17. A very Happy Birthday to each of you, blow out those candles and make good wishes.

THERE WAS A most beautiful solemnization of marriage in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Jones as their daughter Marsha became the bride of Tommy Goodwin of Archer City. The couple will live in Abilene where they are both students at Abilene Christian College. You will find more about this on the Society page of the Sunday News.

AGAIN, I WAS so fortunate to get to attend the Christian Business and Professional Women's Club meeting this Monday. This was a coffee in the home of a member in Amarillo. A devotional was given by Mrs. H.A. Somerville, the topic being 'Treasures in Heaven' based on Colossians 3:1-2 and Matthew 6:19-21. I just couldn't help but come away with new inspiration and such a good feeling.

A HAPPY MOTHERS' Day to every mother this coming Sunday. I thank God every day that I was raised in a Christian home with a Christian mother.

Jowell 4-H Club Views Method Demonstrations

Five method demonstrations were given May 5 when the Jowell 4-H club met at the Jowell School.

In response to a demonstration on community improvement by Gary Hinders, the club voted to clean up roadsides, mow the lawn at the community building, and have their well water checked for purity.

Rhonda Davis gave pointers on pet care. She told members not to bathe their dogs too often, because it dries out an animal's coat, but to brush them frequently. She also stressed good nutrition for pets and cleaning their dishes daily.

David Hall spoke on tornado safety, saying that a storm shelter is the safest place to be, but that a person in a car must use his own judgment about trying to outrun the funnel or taking shelter in a ditch until it has passed.

"Drugs and You" was the subject of David Abbott's demonstration. He discussed the sources of drugs, symptoms of users, and legal measures concerning narcotics.

Shawn Hall showed illustrations of five types of safe trash burners for demonstration titled "Smokey Says Burn Trash Safely." He urged members to burn trash after 4 p.m. on days when the wind is low and to place burners in a clearing away from buildings and trees.

Following the program, Janice Irlbeck led the group in singing. Mrs. Raymond Hinders was accompanist.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Jim Irlbeck, the adult organization leader, to Jill Leavitt, Greg Hinders, Neal Hinders, Brenda Abbott, Brad Hinders, Jay Irlbeck, and those on the program.

Seven parents and leaders were present.

The club will hold its next regular meeting in September.

Miss Weldert To Graduate

Miss Vanita Weldert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. V. Weldert of Route 1 Canyon, will receive a diploma from Northwest Texas Hospital School of Nursing at 8 p.m. May 19.

VANITA WELDERT

The commencement exercises will be held in the Civic Center Auditorium in Amarillo.

Wedding Vows To Be Renewed

Married couples at morning services at Calvary Baptist Church Sunday are to renew their wedding vows during the sermon planned by the Rev. Mel Hardin, pastor.

The sermon on Christian marriage is to mark the church's observance of Christian Home week, which will end Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Hardin is to preach on "What You Did When You Said 'I Do'."

Tidbits here and there

By CAROL CRAIN

APRIL LAWRENCE, professional model, recently gave the Good Neighbors Club a style show with fashions from Sakowitz and The Door.

Within her narration April told grooming and modeling tips. Some of the things she mentioned included proper procedure for sitting and standing. Sitting with crossed legs tends to break down the muscles of the thigh and should be avoided, she noted.

Hands look graceful when one is placed forward with the other slightly behind it, both at the waist, or in the T-square position.

The model also pointed out that contrary to popular belief vertical lines are not slimming.

Had a party? Or giving one? Tell The Canyon News About it. Telephone 655-2141, or stop by the News office on the west side of the square.

"You look across a fence not up and down it", the model illustrated.

The dressmakers are again combining plaids and polka dots in matching or blending color schemes. She told the group to do this very carefully so that the effect doesn't look like a hodge podge.

"It is always better to be underdressed than over dressed," she pointed out.

A good way to tell if you are over dressed is awarding 5 points for the basic dress. Add one point for each accessory (pin, watch, rings, scarf, necklace, colored hose (counts 2), shoes with buckles (counts 2) or any other ornament. If your total is more than 15 you should take off something. (Preferably not the dress, however).

DARK HOSE ARE costume makers and add to the total effect of the outfit.

April noted that the markets are showing mid-knee and mid-calf lengths and hemlines at the ankle. The ankle-length is considered better than the floor-length because one might trip over the extra length of cloth which is also more easily soiled. Pants should break over the shoe.

By the way, the model pointed out that light colored shoes should only be worn with light colored clothes; dark shoes with everything else. If light colored shoes are worn with dark dresses they call attention to your foot size. (Not exactly what you want others to remember about you).

BEFORE LEAVING on your vacation howabout picking up a "TEXAS" and-or "CAN-DO CITY" bumper sticker for your car at the Canyon Chamber of Commerce. This way you would be promoting "Our Town" while you are away.

And, when you get back please give me a call, so that I may mention it in this column.

Some of the plans I've heard lately sound exciting...Europe, Alaska, and other points throughout the USA.

THE GREETING CARD companies may not like it but...I received a very clever birthday card recently. It was a plain piece of paper folded twice with a greeting (You're not getting older...You're getting better) Happy Birthday! And here's the 2 bits I saved by making this card. Attached was a quarter! Loved it! Thanks Jo Ellen.

A DIRTY THIRTY WAKE Party was given as a birthday surprise for Roy McGregor last Saturday.

The party (like the ones thrown in Ireland after a funeral) was held at the McGregor home in the form of a barbeque for friends.

Each guest received a black arm band, tombstone name tags, funeral flowers were sent, and a scroll was given to the guest of honor which read in part "according the rank of the 'over the hill' gang" and was signed the Dirty Thirty Club.

As you might have guessed Roy was thirty years old that evening.

Couples attending included Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Triplett, Mr. and Mrs. Greg Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Pennington, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gravitt, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bell, all of Canyon, and Mr. and Mrs. Jay Followell of Dallas.

"THE WILD FLOWERS OF TEXAS" will be the topic of interest presented Monday evening when the Audubon Society meets.

The group, headed by Dr. Charles Smith of the WTSU faculty, will hear a slide presentation by Mrs. Clifford Drake of Phillips.

Canyon residents interested in the meeting are invited to attend. Canyon members include the Smiths and Mrs. Lula Moreman.

The meeting will be held at the lovely Amarillo Garden Center at 7:30 p.m.

Certainly, the birds, wild flowers, butterflies, etc. of nature add so much to the beauty of the world. We should try to enjoy them to the maximum.

In this busy world sometimes we don't stop to enjoy the little creatures around us who are providing music, gracefully moving through the air, or nodding in the gentle breeze.

Would we notice if, some spring, we awoke and found them gone?

Yes, we should certainly try to enjoy them to the fullest...and solve the ecology problem while there is yet time.

IF YOU ENJOY "cooking with soups" you may order a book by that title from Campbell's Soup Company through December 31 of this year.

Send ten labels (must be from Beef Broth, Cheddar Cheese, Chicken Broth, Consomme Beef, Cream of Celery, Chicken, or Mushroom, Golden Mushroom, or Onion) or $1 to: Cookbook, Box 380, Maple Plain, Minnesota 55359.

Band Comes Home A Winner

By PAULINE HEFLEY

A "HEARTY" WELCOME HOME to those in the Canyon Band who have just returned from their trip to Atlanta where they received a "One" in Concert and received a second place as the most "outstanding" in Class 2A. Those who were in attendance on the trip from the Gene Howe area were Jane Taylor, David Finke, Patti Lovelady, Cindy Johnson, Larry Young, Tom Connally, Jeff and Ronnie Cates. The trip began Thursday last when all departed (via Air) for Dallas where they boarded a plane for Atlanta, Georgia.

THURSDAY EVE WAS spent in band rehersal (and you can see why they continue to bring home the awards) and Friday morn was the contest. Friday afternoon was the fun of Six Flags over Georgia (which I understand is very similar to our own Six Flags Over Texas). Saturday AM the young people visited the Cyclorama which is the tale of the battle of Atlanta and incidentally is purported to be the largest painting in the world with the figures extended on the ground. Saturday AM the group also visited Stone Mountain which portrays the three greats carved out of the mountain, General Robert E. Lee, General Stonewall Jackson, and Jefferson Davis, President of the Condederacy. Then Saturday afternoon they journeyed thru "underground" Atlanta, which is the oldest part of Atlanta with expressways running over it.

SUNDAY MORN THEY left by train for New Orleans. While in New Orleans they visited Preservation Hall which is notorious for its jazz music. Then Monday AM caught the flight for Big D and ye ole Amarillo Canyon. In the words of one of the participants they had a really "boss" time and it sure sounds so. A special "Thanks" to Mr. J. W. King who is their most capable director (did you all happen to see him all season playing in the Amarillo Symphony).

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO Shari Solbrig who celebrated her 13th with a swim party Friday last. A good time was had by all the young ladies who went for a dip.

CONGRATULATIONS TO LAWRENCE W. Taylor who just graduated from West Texas State University with a degree in Business Management. (Always was impressed with the way he managed.)

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO Mike Podzemny.

I DESERVED A real hand spanking for overlooking the 1st grade program last week and I appologize. Understand the production of "Peter Rabbit" was simply topshelf and a special thanks to the first grade teachers Mrs. Hinger and Mrs. Bell and to Mrs. Margie Phillips who worked so diligently on the show. And, let's not forget the mommies who made the costumes and then all the little darlings who made the show. Understand they had all kinds of vegetables such as lettuce and carrots. . .all those things that rabbits like. Must have been a really great show and one we're sorry we missed.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO Gay Cochran. And, speaking of teacher Gay, word comes to me that she passed her final exam this eve at school Hoorah, hooray!!

TAKING IN THE sand and salt water of the Gulf recently were Mrs. Darlene Campbell and daughters, Kelli and Darla. The three lovely ladies flew to Houston where they were joined by Darlene's relatives, Darel, Dottie, and DeAnn Wakefield. Then tootled over to Galveston for a few days. Darlene says they swam and did a little sightseeing, the usual things, and had a nice trip with lots of wind and many waves.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO Barbara Campsey.

DID YOU ALL catch the program presented by the music department of Gene Howe on Monday eve of this week? The sixth grade band under the direction of Mr. Dick Clardy, the student teacher, and the sixth grade choir under the direction of Mrs. Margie Phillips, made for a nice evening of entertainment.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO Jay Edwards.

CONGRATULATIONS TO IVAN Thompson, who is in the sixth grade at Gene Howe. Ivan won two belt buckles in rodeoing over at Gruver recently. Here is a date to mark down on your calandar. .this Saturday, May 13 ya'll ought to motor up to the formal dedication of the second cottage of the High Plains Children's Home on Chapman Road. A noon meal will be served to everyone in attendance at high noon and then the dedication by Mr. Bob Barnhill of the Central Church of Christ. You will be interested to know that the funding of this second cottage was completely supplied by The Central Church.

AND TO PUT the finishing touches on the cottage, the teenagers of the Central Church are sponsoring a car wash on Saturday, May 20, from 9 to 3 at the Central parking lot, 15th and Monroe Streets in Amarillo. You can have a clean motorcar for $1.50 and write the whole thing off, Ralph, the whole thing. See you there???

IT'S THAT TIME of year-field trips by the little people at Gene Howe to Palo Duro and a nice way to wind up the school year, eh what?

WORD COMES TO me that one of our young people received a ticket recently for driving his folks motorcar when in reality he didn't have his license. Some of his friends found that rather humorous. Did they?

THE GOOD LORD knew what He was doing when he made a birthday only one time a year-have the entire rest of the year to recuperate. That Alexis Hefley celebrated her 13th with a cookout and swim (former being planned by parents and latter being planned by Alexis) in Palo Duro Canyon Saturday last. Those going along for the merriment were Linda Ford, Shari Solbrig, Jean Cannon, Laura Dillard, Karla and Kim Thompson, Toy Stubblefield, Kim Doss, Alicia Fowlkes. Had some good eating and made several trips down Devils Slide, and the whole gang returned home wet, cold, tired, and with another memory to recall at some distant time in their lives. By the bye, would have sworn I saw our fearless leader down in the canyon, but didn't stop to chat, can you imagine that???

CONGRATULATIONS TO SHERRIE O'Dell, daughter of the Glenn O'Dells who received a "superior" rating recently when she played the piano in the National Piano Playing Guild. Sherrie is a student of Phoebe Stevenson in Amarillo and had to play ten pieces by memory. The judge was Martha Mitchell from Texas Women's University in Denton. This was a fine achievement for a sixth grader and I believe Sherrie was the only entrant from the Gene Howe area. Congratulations again Sherrie, we are proud of you.

SAY, YA'LL BE sure and go vote Saturday if you live in the city limits...either for or against the referendum on Urban Renewal. This voting is getting to be a regular thing, and with some real surprises now and then.

WELL, TROUP 130 of the Boy Scouts attended a Wilderness Camporee down at Camp Don Harrington this Friday nite. Those attending from our area were Gregg Dodson, David, Kurt and Allen Johnson, Bart Solbrig, Kenny Scott and Donald Oliver. The Scoutmasters are Karl Johnson and C. O. Hillman. Gregg Dodson was the Director of Registration, and Kurt Johnson was the Patrol Leader, which are both pretty big jobs. The troop won the Honor Unit award and second place ribbon for competition in wilderness survival. They report a good time and were not apparently affected by the deluge of water that those of us on higher ground received in the earlier part of the evening.

YA'LL PHONE ME your latest...376-9853 or 352-2089. Borrowed from A. J. Marshall..."Taxes are like muscles. Some you never knew you had until they begin to hurt."....pmh

Earlier in the spring, an acrylic landscape by Mrs. Hooper was the winner of the Texas Fine Arts Association Region 16 show. This painting was displayed throughout the state with a TFAA circuit show.

Her work is now being shown in the gallery of the Wichita Falls Museum and Art Center.

Dodgers, Red Legs Tied For Baseball Loop Lead

Only two games were played in the Canyon major league last weekend, due to rain, both Friday games were called. Friday, the Braves and Red Legs game did get underway, but was called in the second inning. The game between the Dodgers and the Astros was called off.

Red Legs 9, Yankees 7

The Red Legs jumped to a four run margin in the first inning and never relinquished the lead, as they whipped the Yankees, 9-7.

The game was called in the fifth inning, because of the time limit. Bell and Brown were the winning pitcher-catcher combination for the Red Legs. They went the distance. Collins and Haws, who also went the five innings, were named the losing battery.

Camfield led the Red Legs batters as he blasted a single and a double, while team mate Bell racked up two singles. Ingram and McRoberts were both credited with singles.

Cheyne was the only Yankee batter to record two hits. He belted two singles, although Perry and Anderson, both hit a two bagger. Kendricks, Collins, Haws and Edmondson all got one base hit.

The Dodgers narrowed the four run lead in the second inning, scoring a run. Both teams ran in three runs in the third stanza, but the Red Legs widen the margin to, 9-4 in the fourth. The Yankees rallied for three runs in the fifth and final inning, but fell two runs short.

Braves 12, Astros 4

The Braves swamped the Astros 12-4 in the late game Friday night.

The Braves held the Astros scoreless through the first three innings while rolling up four runs for themselves. The Astros lit the scoreboard with a pair of runs in the fourth inning, but the Braves pushed four runners across the plate in the same stanza to make the score 8-2. In the fifth the Astros again went scoreless and the Braves piled four more runs on to end their scoring. The Astros eked out two final runs in the sixth, but that only narrowed the mrgin of defeat for them.

Danny Roberts and F. Palmer were the winning battery. Kent and Rudd started at the pitcher and catcher positions for the Astros and were the losing combo. Cates relieved Kent in the final inning.

Bostich racked up two singles, a double and a triple for the Braves, while Palmer hit two doubles and a single. Childs, Pratt and F. Palmer all had a base hit.

Kent blasted two home runs for the losing Astros and Miller had a double. Gardner, Johnson and Dillehay all had singles.

Palisades Palaver

Picnic Planned For Saturday

By VICKI HOOKER

ATTENTION: THE PALISADES annual picnic will be Saturday at 6:30 (weather permitting) in the picnic grounds. Joyce McDonald, club secretary, has already sent notices to everyone, but I just wanted to remind you to be sure and come. There'll be lots of good food and fun, and don't forget to bring $10 for your yearly dues. Bring enough food for your family. Drinks will be provided by the club.

JUST IN CASE it rains, we will have the picnic the following Saturday, same place and time. That date is May 20th.

IF YOU'VE DRIVEN past the Dustmans' house lately, you've probably noticed quite a change in its appearance. Bob Dustman, his sons, and two or three other young men can be seen down there almost any night of the week trying to put the house back together again. And they have done an outstanding job, if you remember what a mess they had to start with.

PART OF THE credit must go to their fine supervisor, Roma Dustman. And I'm not saying that to be facetious. She has been down there too with encouragement and moral support, and that has probably been more help than anything.

YOU ALL ARE doing a fine job, and we hope everything goes well and you are back in your own home again very soon.

WHILE WE'RE ON the subject of putting things back together again, I was told by Gerald Seitz that 20 yards of concrete are going to be needed for the tops of the flatcars when they are placed over the north bridge. A yard of concrete costs about $20, so I'm told, and if you could donate $20 for one yard, the club would really appreciate it. There's a possibility that this will be discussed at the picnic Saturday night, so you can find out more about it then.

SPEAKING OF THE Seitz family, happy belated birthday to Sherry who was 11 week-end before last, and to Chris who was 18 last Sunday.

THE RAIN WE'VE been having has brought several channel cats out of hiding, and several fishermen too! The creek banks were lined over the weekend with people of all ages, shapes, and sizes trying to "get the big one." Probably most of the ones that were caught were two and three pounds, along with several small perch and crappie that were reeled out. Most of the fish caught were tossed back, but everyone just had a good time trying anyway.

BRING A SACK lunch next Thursday, May 18, and come to the Palisades Home Demonstration Club Meeting! We will meet at 11:30 a.m. at Beverly Norman's in the Palisades. Beverly is going to teach us to make sand candles. If I'm not mistaken, this will be our last meeting of the year, so don't forget to come. I'll bet it's been a long time since you've played in the sand!

RAIN, HAIL, AND tornado warnings didn't keep Gene and Judy Webb and their family or Dan and Carolyn Bailey and their son home last weekend. The two families, along with Judy and Carolyn's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Lindsey, took a trip to Carlsbad Caverns, but they didn't escape the bad weather. Judy said it rained on them nearly the entire time they were gone (Saturday and Sunday), and Dan's windshield wipers quit working! Outside Carlsbad Sunday they ran into hail that was larger than golfballs! But they said they had a wonderful time, and we're glad they made it home safely.

MONDAY NIGHT THE Webbs and the Baileys had another outing, this time at the home of Joyce and Paul McDonald. It was a going away party for Judy and Carolyn's other two sisters, Sara and Belva, who will be moving to Arkansas.

YOU REMEMBER LAST week I mentioned that Lule and Wanell Childers' grandson, Michael Brown, had undergone his second of six ear surgeries. I talked with his mother the other day, who is back from Panama, and she said Mike came home last Saturday and is doing fine. Mr. and Mrs. Brown are moving back to Texas, so Mike will no longer be staying with Lule and Wanell. The Brown s will either be stationed here or in Killeen at Fort Hood. We'll miss little Mike here in the Palisades, but we're glad he and his family are back together again.

JOE MOSS, RANDY Carthel, and Jamie Walker all raced Sunday night at the Speed Bowl. Randy won first place in moto-cross on his 125 Penton. I'll apologize for not getting more information on this, but all I know is that Joe placed third in something. Jamie placed third in one heat, but did not place in the main race. Congratulations to all of you boys.

THAT'S ALL THE news from the Palisades this week. The board did meet Tuesday night, but I will not report on that until next week. Have a good week, and keep those newstips coming in!

Lake Tanglewood News

THE MONTH of May has been set aside to establish a charter membership roll for the Lake Tanglewood Community Church. Last Sunday was the first invitation and 73 signed the roll!

THE ROLL WILL be open to those wishing to move their letter from another church, or to those wishing to have an Associate membership in which they support the Lake Tanglewood Church and their own church elsewhere.

DR. NEWTON ROBISON, pastor of the church, was very pleased at the response shown Sunday and hopefully more will want to join this month. The Lake Tanglewood Community Church cordially invites you to visit this Sunday. Services begin at 9:00 a.m. in the clubhouse, and coffee is served in the cafe at 9:45. Following the service there is a song session and Sunday School class for the youngsters.

MARGE AND P.B. TAYLOR recently returned from a trip to Marshall where they celebrated their daughter's birthday. While in Marshall, they received a call from their son Jimmy and wife Judy, who said they couldn't wait till they got home to tell them the news. What was the news? You guessed it!. Marge and P.B. will be grandparents in a matter of months. Congratulations to you two.

FISHING HAS been good in the Lake recently. Mary Morris and Dorothy Fletcher have set out their trout line, and Friday when they checked it they found 3 channel cats about 2 pounds each! Good going girls!

BUT LAWRENCE VAN DORAN isn't going to let those women get ahead of him! He just bought a Newman bass boat, and Claudine says it's really fancy. Good Luck to you, too, Lawrence!

CLAUDINE VAN DORAN wanted me to mention a little more about the Bridge Club than was in last week's news. There are two tables of ladies who meet the first Wednesday of each month at 12:30 p.m. and play till 4:30. Each player puts in a quarter and the winner gets $1.25 and second place gets $.75. Coffee and some kind of dessert is served and everyone has a really good time.

THE ARTS AND CRAFTS CLUB will have a demonstration on Macrame, May 22nd. The club will meet at 10 a.m. in the Lake Tanglewood Clubhouse for the demonstration by Julia Mannings' sister, Rebecca. There will be a 50 cent charge for guests and a salad luncheon will be served. Everyone is invited to attend.

DO YOU HAVE some news about guests, trips, meetings, birthdays, anniversaries? Well, don't forget to give Lorene Walker a buzz at 622-0231 or Claudine Van Doran, 622-1681. They'll be more than happy to pass it on to me. I really am enjoying writing Lake Tanglewood News, and I hope you are enjoying reading it. So keep those newstips coming in!

SEE YOU NEXT WEEK!

Had a party? Or giving one? Tell The Canyon News About it. Telephone 655-2141, or stop by the News office on the west side of the square.

Dog-Hunters Get Jolt

By MARY NEAL HENRY

PETE, THE WHITE Austrian Shepherd dog who likes cherry pie and brownies, was the object of an intensive search last Saturday. We found him about 9:30 that night at Lloyd and Dorothy Hooper's. Cecil Doughtery called and told us where he was. During the search, three of the children and I were driving down a ravine leading into the canyon, when I crossed what must have been a smaller ravine. We hit the top, the sides, doorknobs, each other. A pair of wire pliers on the dash hit me on the shin. I thought maybe I'd killed us all. Except for multiple bruises we survived and the old brown pickup still has four wheels under it. Tom's only comment was, "you all have tore up more rigs on those canyons."

HAPPY 4-H WON five FIRST PLACES out of the six entries that went to District Meeting at Lubbock Saturday. Rickey and Vickie House won the senior division of Share-The-Fun and will go to State at College Station. Congratulations, kids, and Good Luck! Junior divisions do not progress any further than District, but Jodi Foster and Lisa Payne won first in Landscape Horticulture; Kim McCaslin won first in Junior Home Improvement; Laura Fellers and Carolyn Moudy won first in Community Improvement; Nancy Woods and Pearl Perez won first in Safety; not only did all these win Blue Ribbons, but they also won first in their categories, The Junior Share-the-Fun group consisting of Andy Payne, Debbie Parker, Brenda Parker, Lisa Foster, Carla Venhaus, Neal Odom, Ronnie McDonald, Jay Horace McCarley, and Doug Sims won a red ribbon. Adults accompanying the 4-H'ers were Charlotte Foster, Opal McCarley, Mary McCaslin, Dorothy Sims, Faye Parker, Linda and Bob McDonald, Jill Moudy and Mr. and Mrs. Perez.

MRS. VIVIAN WESLEY was honored with a tea in the Albert Null home. We were greeted at the door by Fern Spear, Gail Null, Mrs. Wesley, and Ida Mae and Darrell Carruthers, Mrs. Wesley's brother and his wife from Hays. Ida Mae and Darrell were a surprise. They had not promised to come, but it has been raining in Hays also, and so they were able to attend. That is a long trip. Mrs. Wesley and the other elementary teachers were attired in hostess gowns and Mrs. Wesley wore a beautiful corsage of spring flowers.

DAINTY COOKIES, PUNCH and coffee were served from a formally draped table of white lace over blue and centered with a huge arrangement of spring flowers. Mrs. Lonas Wright and Mrs. Linda Waldrop were serving when we arrived and Mrs. Bryan was registering guests. Hostesses to the event were all the elementary teachers, Mrs. Mary McBroom, Mrs. Fern Spear, Mrs. Jimmy Pride, Mrs. Sibyl Gill, Mrs. Jane Forsythe, Mrs. Lonas Wright, Mrs. Linda Waldrop, Mrs. Wanda Wynn, Mrs. Gail Null, Mrs. Glee Williams, and Mrs. Mary Etta Bryan. Over 200 paid their respects to Mrs. Wesley. Among the first pupils that attended were Joe Fortenberry, Annie Lemmons, Victor and Foster Harman. Other out-of-town guests were Mrs. Jewel Norman and Mrs. C. L. Minors of Floydada, Mrs. Margarette Huffman and Mrs. May Reet of Plainview, Mr. and Mrs. J.B. McCombs of Borger, Mr. and Mrs. H.A. Wallace of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Odell Wilkes of Meadow, and Doug Forsythe of Lubbock. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fortenberry of Amarillo were also there.

BERT AND ANNIE Lemmons of Gruver had attended the FFA Banquet at Gruver on Saturday night and Bert told me that Chris Bradley received the DeKalb Award.

PHYLLIS BRADLEY AND Chris spent Friday night with us. Enjoyed the visit. Pat and Melton Schaeffer's daughter, Tricia Janelle, was born in Neblett hospital on Monday, May 8 at 5:45 p.m. She weighed 6lb. 15 oz. and is fine. Grandparents are Coleen and Melvin Schaeffer.

MR. E.W. SCHAEFFER was admitted to Neblett hospital on Sunday with heart failure. He was resting Monday. When he became a great-grandfather, he wanted them to bring the baby to him Tuesday and take their picture.

PAM SHIPMAN, LION'S Queen, was among the top ten finalists at Dalhart at the District 2-T 1 contest.

ED MOORE WAS buried at Wayside last Saturday. Ed was the brother-in-law of George Schaeffer and Mrs. Violet Bryan. He moved from this area to Arkansas about nine years ago.

RICHARD KENNEDY OF the Happy Volunteer Fire Department says that a Rabies Clinic will be held for all dogs and cats at the Happy Fire Station. This will be May 27 from 1 to 5. Dr. Markham will hold the clinic. There will be a charge of $4.00 per shot.

Mrs. Kate Vernon had her granddaughter from Canyon, Becky Anderson, with her and Mr. Waters had two of his granddaughters with him (Glen's girls) We had a visiting singer from Wayland. Three Motorcycle To Logan, N.M.; Miss Buckles Walks For Mankind

By TOOTIE BYBEE

HELLO TO ALL of you from all of us in this little oasis of activity and friendship!! Hope the week past has been a pleasant one for you and yours. Did you vote?? Good!! Was hoping everyone did just that little thing. Can't say how very important it is to do so. Also, wanted to say thank you to The Canyon News for the opportunity to participate in the contest past. Didn't fare too well, but enjoyed meeting those I visited with and sure did enjoy returning some service to the News for suggesting having all these columns from surrounding areas. Just helping us all feel much more like part of the community and of Canyon. Thanks, Canyon News.

I HEARD THAT one of my good friends and neighbors had an unexpected and interesting trip to Logan, by way of motorcycle. If you're interested, his initials are I.J. Tow, along with brother Bob Tow and Marvin Carr. Said all enjoyed the little jaunt, especially Ann who was up until 4 Sunday morning driving to Logan to pick them up and bring them back home. Guess they were just too tired to ride back. Say, Forrest how does the road narrow!!

WELL MY GOOD pal Lora Lee Laird was a busy little gal this week end. She went roller skating with her Sunday School group from First Baptist Church in Canyon and took along her friend, Carla Schmidt. Then, on Sunday afternoon, she with friend, Debra Drost, went skating again. Lenise says extra big thanks to Lora and Carla for the pretty get-well card, she's feeling a lot better. And to everyone who called to check on her and ask about her, thanks.

THE BURDETTES HAVE all been real busy finishing up their new bedroom. Can't wait to get over and take a peek at it. I know Mikie is real happy with it.

CINDY BUCKLES HAS been "walking" again. She participated in the "Walk for Mankind" sponsored by the Y's. She walked, would you believe, 20 miles. The sponsors need to pay up now. Anyone who would walk 20 miles for a good cause like this needs all of our support. Hear so much about the bad young people do, this is some good. Just have to add, Cindy has looked like the proverbial Huck Finn in her overalls out painting their board fence this last week.

THE HUDSON HOUSEHOLD was just jumping with excitement and people this week end. Of course, you all know Blanche graduated Saturday night from WT and all the Hudsons and Perschbachers from far and wide came to the big event. I believe she told me she had 12 in all for dinner and supper Saturday. Sounds like they are all proud of her too.

CONGRATULATIONS TO DENISE Bonifield on being selected as a Jr Hi Cheerleader for next year. Nice try Glenna, we are proud of you.

THE CAMP FIRE girls worked on their beaded head bands this week in preparation for Grand Council Fire Thursday evening at Camp Don Harrington, starting at 7:30. The Kwahadi Indians will dance before the Grand Council is convened. If you have never been to a Camp Fire Girls Grand Council, come and watch, nothing is so lovely and meaningful as this ceremony. It will take place at the Council Ring at the Camp Don site. Oh, yes, I had a couple of calls about Camp Fire Girls this week, showing interest. If any of you are interested in Camp Fire Girls or just want more info, please feel free to call me and talk with me about it. 622-1471. While on the subject, thank you so much to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burdette, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Tow for the donations to buy our beautiful new group tent, we love it!!

THE LTC MET at the Gene Minor home this week. Said they all had a real good time and a really good, good dinner. See you at Mike Whitehead's this Thursday.

LOOKS LIKE THERE are a bunch of people getting ready for summer traveling, or week end summer fun. Saw a lot of boats being put in shape and campers mounted on pickups, etc. The Sanderses seem to be preparing to use their lovely big boat, also, the Rosses have a new one. Suppose it won't be too long til the fishermen like Mr. Hillard, will be all ready to set out.

DID YOU ALL get your puppies and kittens all fixed up with their rabies shots? Living out like we all do and the animals running loose, we sure all need to cooperate with the animal control and make sure our pets are protected.

ROGER AND MIKE Whitehead spent enjoyable evening with their Sunday School Department from the First Baptist Church in Amarillo, at the Baptist Assembly grounds. They had a steak dinner and played games and enjoyed the fellowship and lovely evening together.

GUESS ALL THOSE little sweeties, the third graders at Gene Howe, enjoyed their field trip to Palo Duro Canyon this past Friday. Heard the whole bunch got a little wet from the rain. But a good time was had by all. The Choir and Band program Monday was really great from the reports I received. Glenna Evans, Cristie Jones and Denise Malson all sang with the Choir. I'm sure there were many more of our kiddoes involved, just didn't know who. That Mrs. Phillips always does a bangup job with those youngsters.

WELL, FROM WHAT I see and hear, baseball season must be here. All the kiddoes are talking about practice and games. Several involved are Traca Cooper, Ricky Cooper, and Jay Moreland. Also, Mr. Moreland plays on a ball team for men. I know right where Barbara is going to be the better half of the summer. At a ball game.

THANKS TO MARY Jo Griffin over in Sherman for the news clippings. Mrs. Patterson says thanks "special".

DID YOU SEE: Mr. Boren and son, Lee, out enjoying their new motorcycles? Marty Johnson riding one of her beautiful horses, have you ever seen anyone look any prettier in the saddle than Marty?? The big gang of boys enjoying a long, lazy Sunday afternoon playing baseball on one of the vacant lots in the Park. The Holmans' beautiful front lawn and all the care they give it. The Steens working away on their beautiful new home. That beautiful baby, Marcy Minor. The wishing well the Evanses are building in their front yard.

Well, see you again soon.

ONE LAST WORD: To Mrs. Blanche Hudson: Do you have something you want to tell me. I'm waiting, but just so long!

4-H Club Will Ride In Canyon

Twenty members of the Coulter Road 4-H Club will participate in a trail ride in Palo Duro Canyon Saturday.

The students, ages 11 to 17, will ride their own horses on the trail to the light house, according to Mrs. Bill White, leader.

Each member will be responsible for their own provisions and care of themselves and their horses, Mrs. White said.

Activity leaders who will accompany the group will be Mr. and Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Thompson and Mrs. Ruth Robison.

Kiwanis Softball Tryouts Scheduled

Team selections for the Canyon Kiwanis softball teams will be made at 11 a.m. Saturday at the Girls Softball Diamond.

All girls between the ages of 12 and 14 who wish to try out for the teams should be present at the meeting, according to Commissioner George Blackwell.

Regular season play will begin June 6 and end July 4.

A second try-out for the teams will be held at 11 a.m. June 3, Blackwell said.

Coaches for the four teams will be Nelson Vaughn, George Bertisher, David West and James Davis.

Audubon Society To See Slides

Mrs. Clifford Drake of Phillips will speak on wildflowers of the Texas Panhandle and members of the Texas Panhandle Audubon Society will view slides chosen to "show that spring is here" when the society meets at the Amarillo Garden Center at 7:30 p.m. Monday, according to Dr. Charles Smith, 2422 15th Ave., the group's president.

Dr. Smith said that all wildflower fanciers are invited to attend.
